Three car collision in Polk County injures one

On Sunday, September 17, 2017, at approximately 12:00 p.m. a Wisconsin State Patrol Trooper responded to a three vehicle crash on US Highway 63 at County Highway F in Polk County.

At the scene, the Trooper determined that the crash was caused by Joseph P. Koehler, 27, of Oakdale, MN., who failed to yield from a stop sign while traveling eastbound on County Highway F at US Highway 63.

Koehler pulled out in front of, and was struck by, a Cadillac Escalade driven by David G. Ficocello, 59, of Cumberland, which was southbound on US Highway 63. After the initial impact, the vehicles then struck a Dodge Caravan, driven by Steven S. Sunday, 40, from Clear Lake, which had been stopped in the northbound lane of US Highway 63, while waiting to turn westbound onto County Highway F.

Joseph P. Koehler, was charged with possession of marijuana, operating under the influence of marijuana with a child under the age of 16 (3 years of age), in the vehicle, failure to yield right of way, and operating a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license. Koehler was transported to Amery Hospital due to injuries he sustained in the crash. The other occupants in the vehicles either appeared to be uninjured or were medically cleared.

The Wisconsin State Patrol was assisted by the Polk County Sheriff's Department, Clear Lake Fire Department, Clear Lake Ambulance and Amery Ambulance.

Public comment invited on draft of Barron County Multi-Hazard Mitigation Plan

by Mike Judy, Director of Emergency Services, Barron County Sheriff's Department

As we've seen during the past decade, Barron County residents, businesses, and communities are at risk of a variety of hazards, such as tornados, power outages, freezing water lines, avian flu, and gun violence. Such threats have the potential to cause property loss, loss of life, economic hardship, and threats to public health and safety. While an important aspect of emergency management deals with disaster recovery (the actions that a community takes to repair damages), an equally important aspect of emergency management involves hazard mitigation or the sustained actions taken to reduce long-term risk to life and property. Example mitigation activities include not building in flood prone areas, identifying safe rooms for tornados, and using fire-resistant construction materials in wildfire hazard areas. Hazard mitigation actions are essential to creating a disaster-resilient community and breaking the typical disaster cycle of damage, reconstruction, and repeated damage.

Barron County is in the process of updating the County's Multi-Hazard Mitigation Plan. This plan is a pre-requisite for certain FEMA grant programs. For example, Barron Electric Cooperative previously used FEMA mitigation funding to bury electric lines in areas prone to power outages.

With the input of communities, various stakeholders, and a diverse steering committee, the updated draft plan is now available for review. Barron County Emergency Management is inviting input from residents, businesses, area organizations, and communities regarding the draft plan and any needed projects to reduce or eliminate hazard risks to residents and property.

A copy of the draft plan is available for download at: <http://wewrpe.org/Documents.html>. Questions or comments on the draft plan should be directed to Mike Judy, Director of Emergency Services, Barron County Sheriff's Department, at 715-637-6732 or Michael.Judy@co.barron.wi.us.

Nationwide Emergency Alert System (EAS) Test

There will be a national test of the "Emergency Alert System" (EAS) system. This is just like the monthly EAS test that takes place in your jurisdiction... except it will be happening nationwide.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) will conduct a national test of the Emergency Alert System (EAS) with radio, TV, and cable stations on September 27, 2017 (primary date) or October 4, 2017 (secondary date) at 2:20 pm EDT. The test is expected to last approximately one minute and will verify the delivery and broadcast of a national test message and assess the readiness for distribution of a national-level test message.

There are no actions or monitoring requirements for residents of the community.

Public safety officials need to be sure that in times of an emergency or disaster, they have methods and systems that will deliver urgent alerts and warnings to the public. Periodic testing of public alert and warning systems is a way to assess the operational readiness of the infrastructure for distribution of a national message and determine whether technological improvements are needed.

The test is expected to have limited impact on the public with only minor disruptions of radio and television programs. This typically occurs when broadcasters conduct regular monthly EAS tests in their area, including states and tribal communities.

City hosts second community meeting on Comprehensive Plan

The City of Cumberland hosted an open meeting last Thursday, September 14th regarding the City's Comprehensive Plan. This was the second meeting about the plan.

Every ten years each municipality in Wisconsin is required to submit a Comprehensive Plan charting a community's growth and plans for the future. Last December, the City held their first meeting where they invited community involvement in the Comprehensive Plan. The community members attending that event signed up to work on one of the seven committees - housing, transportation, utilities and community facilities, agricultural, natural and cultural resources; economic development, intergovernmental cooperation elements and land use, that the Comprehensive Plan focuses on.

The committees met over the last nine months and the results were shared with the community on September 14th.

Mayor Skinner opened the meeting and went on to introduce Mike Werner, who has overseen the work of the committees for the Comprehensive Plan. Werner then presented the first draft of the Comprehensive Plan to the attendees of the meeting.

After reading the draft, Werner discussed the final area of the Comprehensive Plan process, Implementation. The City is now asking for community recommendations based on the first draft.

If you were unable to attend the open meeting, but would like to view the draft of the Comprehensive Plan, please contact Julie Kessler at City Hall, 715-822-2752.

The final public meeting on the Plan is expected to be held in November, with the Plan being put before the council for approval at the December meeting.

Northwoods Notebook: A guy from Cleveland wanted to talk Cumberland

by Larry Werner

I was sitting on the bench in front of Peter & Annie's when this guy named Tom asked if he could sit down. Of course he could, and it wasn't long before I began to give my Chamber-of-Commerce talk.

He and his wife had come to Wisconsin from Cleveland, Ohio, to see a new grandchild born to his daughter and son-in-law in Rice Lake. Their daughter had met this guy from Spooner, and, like all good natives of north-west Wisconsin, he brought her up here, where he had taken a job.

Tom and his wife had decided to spend a day in Cumberland, and he might be sorry he sat next to me on that bench. By the time our conversation ended, he was saying he might consider retiring here if his other six kids weren't back in Ohio.

I told Tom that the town was settled in the 1800s by Italians and Scandinavians who came to build the railroad, to harvest the trees and to farm. Dave Evenson stopped by, which gave me a chance to mention that Dave and other board members of ETC had drafted me to get involved with theater.

Then Craig Turcott and Lee Jacobson walked by. They developed Serenity Shores, the condo community where I live, and that led to my pointing out you can get a lot of home for the money in Cumberland.

Tom is 60, three years retired from his last employer, and he'd like to find a job, at least part time, doing actuarial work for company pensions. He had that look I had at 60, when I retired the first time, and needed to get back to work for emotional rather than financial reasons.

I had to be doing something after my workaholic career in newspapers.

I explained that when I retired again at 66, I was OK not working, because I had bought a place in this little town, and I was plenty busy doing things I love - writing this column, serving on the board of the arts council, producing events at the Cumberland Arts Center and on the Library Lake stage.

If I hadn't moved to Cumberland, I might have had to keep working.

But there's something about living here, I said, that agrees with an old guy who lived his entire working life in large cities.

"How are the winters?" Tom asked.

They're cold, but not when you're cross-country skiing, or dressed properly while taking a walk through town, or snowmobiling, or ice-fishing. And if the winter gets to you, spend some time in Florida or Arizona, as so many of us do. And when you get back home, it'll be time to get the boat out of storage and to clean the golf clubs.

After getting away, you'll be glad you're returning to a place where people treat you like you belong, even if you aren't a third-generation Cumberland resident. You'll find there are a lot of us who came here for the small-town lifestyle, to live on a lake, to hear loons rather than airplanes, to watch the trees all around you turn from green to gold and crimson this time of year.

"It is beautiful up here," Tom said.

Then his wife came to fetch him from the bench. She had a bag of goodies from our downtown stores, and they had one more stop to make before heading back to Ohio.

"How do I get to Louies?" Tom asked.

City and county crews were busy last week resurfacing the street and replacing a faulty manhole cover on Second Ave. beginning at Donatelle St.

Opinion

By Craig Bucher

The 2017 football season is really underway with high schools, colleges and the professional teams all playing meaningful games. Both the Badgers and the Gophers, under a new head coach, are undefeated. Soon the Big 10 conference games begin and the pecking order will be sorted out. At the end of the season, I suspect the Gophers will be middle of the pack and the Badgers will be playing for a title. Some things never change. At the professional level, I believe the Packers, with their all-star quarterback, are just too good for the rest of the division. The Vikings will win some games, but will fall short again. Oh well, hope still springs eternal for Viking fans. I guess Viking fans didn't have to wait very long as the stunk up the place on Sunday.

Leonard Pitts, one of my favorite editorial columnists wrote an interesting editorial on Sunday titled, "Nickel prophets are a dime a dozen." Pitts lists the last natural disasters and then lists a group of preachers who claim to know "God's will." God sent Hurricane Irma because of Americans supporting same sex marriage or LGBT rights. It is an interesting commentary that is well thought out. I suggest you read it.

Inside Wisconsin

by Tom Still

After the vote: Behind the scenes work on Foxconn just beginning

MADISON, Wis. — Both houses of the Wisconsin Legislature have passed legislation endorsing the framework of an incentive package for the Foxconn Technology Group, which is poised to make a $10-billion investment in the state.

Now, the real work begins.

That's not intended to diminish the long hours of debate and study devoted to the Foxconn bill by lawmakers since it was first revealed in early summer. Rather, it's to acknowledge if ever there was a case of the devil lurking in the details of a deal, this is it.

Passed this month by the Assembly, 64-31, and the Senate, 20-13, the process now returns to state negotiators to finish writing the terms of the incentive package. That will take the form of a contract that will outline the more precise terms of how, when and if Foxconn will be compensated for investing up to $10 billion in capital over time and hiring up to 13,000 direct employees.

It will look much like a bank underwriting process, in which provisions are outlined to provide incentives for Foxconn to perform as announced while limiting the state of Wisconsin's risk through repayment "clawbacks" or payment thresholds for meeting job creation targets.

An amendment passed by the Senate and embraced by the Assembly would require the Wisconsin Economic Development Corp. to "establish job creation thresholds" for Foxconn that must be met before incentives could be paid, even in partial form.

While that amendment didn't set specific job ranges — state negotiators will work on that in coming weeks — it helps to address concerns that Foxconn would fall short of its predicted 13,000 jobs and still get the bulk of an estimated $3 billion in state incentives.

It leaves the state in a better position to negotiate with Foxconn over retroactive tax incentives for job creation. Foxconn is the world's largest contract manufacturer of electronics and the fourth-largest information technology company by overall revenues, a status the company didn't obtain by having a team of weak negotiators.

In addition to the state contract talks, work is underway to solve what some people predict is the biggest problem of all: Finding enough skilled workers for Foxconn in an already tough labor market.

Marquette University President Lovell touched on that need Thursday at a Tech Council Innovation Network meeting in Wauwatosa. Marquette campus leaders are regularly in touch with the company over its need for scientists, engineers and other technicians, Lovell said. Similar conversations are happening throughout the UW System, the state's technical colleges and other private colleges and universities.

Lovell said it's part of a larger trend — in Wisconsin and well beyond — to better align the needs of industry with higher education in a rapidly changing world.

"We have to be nimble; we have to be quicker," Lovell said. "It's a service to our students to help them prepare for a world in which many of tomorrow's jobs don't exist today."

Lovell, an engineer who was part of the University of Pittsburgh faculty before coming to UW-Milwaukee and later to Marquette, talked about Pittsburgh's transformation when Google opened a major office there. In short order, he recalled, Apple, Intel, Microsoft and Disney also took up residence in the former steel-making city.

The same will happen in Wisconsin, he said. "Once you build an infrastructure in a sector, others will follow," Lovell said.

Finally, as it becomes more apparent that Racine County will be Foxconn's primary home, local officials there will step up work on the details of what it means for a liquid crystal display plant the size of 11 Lambeau Fields to be dropped in your backyard. Those questions will revolve around land, water, roads, power lines, housing, mass transit and much more.

The Foxconn deal had a highly contentious public airing in the Legislature. Now, the attention will turn to what it means to make Wisconsin the North American home to one of the world's largest technology companies.

Still is president of the Wisconsin Technology Council. He is the former associate editor of the Wisconsin State Journal.

side UTV. EMS personnel were working on her and advised the UTV she was sitting in was not the ATV involved in the crash.

Deputy Wiese learned the ATV involved in the crash was a green Polaris and witnesses saw the driver leave north on 6 1/2 Street. Deputy Wiese located the ATV involved in the crash on 6 1/2 Street and identified the driver as Brent Delougherty.

Deputy Wiese asked him what happened and he said they hit a bump on the trail and the female flew off the back of the four wheeler.

Deputy Wiese observed Delougherty had glassy eyes, slurred speech and an odor of intoxicating beverages coming from his breath. Turtle Lake Police Officer Traczyk arrived on scene and spoke with the owner, who said she parked her vehicle outside and went inside to speak with a friend. She said she left the vehicle running and was inside the house for a few minutes. When she came outside her vehicle was missing.

She further stated when she walked into the residence she observed a man leaving the bar. He was described as stocky and wearing a white button up shirt with a baseball hat. She said she did not recognize him.

The vehicle was identified as a 2001 Ford Windstar van, red in color. Officer Traczyk checked the area and was unable to locate the vehicle. A short time later he was contacted by a female subject who said she received information that her son, Brian Weber, had stolen the vehicle and was driving to Missouri. Officer Traczyk met with the female subject who reported she had last seen her son around 1:30 p.m. She also stated he is an alcoholic.

At approximately 8:00 p.m she received a phone call from her son's friend, reporting that Weber had called her and told her he stole a vehicle and was driving to Missouri. Officer Traczyk spoke with the caller, who stated Weber contacted her by Facetime and told her he had stolen a van and was going to drive to Missouri to see her. When she asked why he stole the vehicle he began laughing. He told her he had been drinking all afternoon and had nothing to live for.

At approximately 10:30 p.m the Barron County Sheriff's Department received a phone call reporting a red van on the side of the road on U S Highway 8 east of Barron. The caller reported there was a male subject walking away from the vehicle.

Football Team Falls to Bloomer; Barron Next Up

In a game filled with over 1,000 yards of total offense, the Cumberland Beavers dropped a 58-38 HON contest to the Bloomer Blackhawks last Friday night at Endeavor Stadium. Three Cumberland turnovers were part of the difference in the game, which was filled with plenty of offensive fireworks.

The two teams took different approaches in piling up points. The Beavers had 515 yards passing in the game, with only 37 yards on the ground in 16 attempts. The Blackhawks, meanwhile, rushed for 528 yards, while only attempting two passes. One of their completions, however, was a fourth down touchdown pass, which came while the teams were neck and neck.

Bloomers biggest individual performance on the ground, came from running back Phillip Jorstad, who rushed for 301 yards on 29 attempts and five touchdowns. Much of his damage came between the tackles. Running back Aaron Price added 138 yards in 19 attempts, while quarterback Zach Ruf added 87 yards in 19 carries.

For Cumberland, Kobe Berghammer had another big night, completing 32 of 51 passes for 515 yards and five touchdowns. His favorite target was Max Narges, who caught nine Berghammer passes for 158 yards and three scores.

Andrew Barnes added seven catches for 89 yards and Steven Hanson had six receptions for 118 yards and a touchdown. Freshman Jack Martens and junior Reid Olson contributed four catches each.

Bloomer led 28-14 at half and scored 22 points in the third quarter to take control of the game. "We missed some opportunities in the second and third quarters that could have made a difference in the contest," said Coach Corey Berghammer.

"We need to put this game in the rearview mirror and get ready for the Barron game," Berghammer added. Barron has struggled and is winless on the season, dropping a 67-8 decision to Northwestern last week. They should be a welcome relief to a Beavers defense.

The Beavers will likely be without running back Riley Bodsberg against Barron, as he suffered a shoulder injury on Friday. Bodsberg rushed for 28 yards in five attempts, before being forced from Fridays contest. Reid Olson moved in from wide receiver and filled in well with 29 yards in only three rushing attempts, while adding 67 yards on four receptions and a touchdown.

Game time at Barron is 7:00 pm.

Volleyball Team Has Good Week, At Ladysmith Thursday

The Cumberland Volleyball Team went 2 and 1 last week as it moved into the midpoint of its season. Cumberland defeated Glenwood City and Northwestern and lost to Hayward in three matches. The team will be back in action this Thursday against HON foe, Ladysmith and then heads to Northwestern this Saturday for the Tigers Invitational.

Cumberland defeated Glenwood City 25-17, 25-21, and 25-15 last Monday. Ania Hyatt led the team with 11 kills, while Lauren Green added six more. Izzy West had a nice night with 27 assists, while Sophie Bassett served at 100 percent.

Tuesday, Cumberland dropped a tough five set match to Hayward. The team split the first four games, but the Hurricanes won the deciding contest 15-11 to take the team victory.

"It was a tough loss, especially when we won the first two sets," said Coach Jessica Olson. Hannah Delzer had a team-high five digs, while Adreanna Johnson and Lauren Green had six kills each. Izzy West had another good night with 39 assists and six service aces.

Cumberland rebounded from the loss to defeat Northwestern in three straight sets on Thursday. "We passed well, which allowed us to run a good offense," said Olson.

Ania Hyatt led Cumberland with 14 kills, while West had 39 assists, Green 13 digs, and Kiya Talbot, Mykayla Anderson, and Sophie Bassett 100 percent serving nights.

Kyle Narges and UW-River Falls Pick up Second Win

Former Cumberland athlete Kyle Narges and his UW-River Falls teammates moved to 2 and 1 on the year with a 30-3 victory over Missouri Baptist in a game played at St. Louis last weekend. The Falcons will have a bye next week, before opening up WIAC play on September 30 with a game at UW-Eau Claire.

Narges is a Senior Captain for the Falcons. He had three tackles from his starting cornerback position last weekend as well as returning a kickoff for 32 yards and handling three punt returns. He already has one First Team All-Conference and one Second Team selection on his resume and is hoping for a big senior season for himself and the Falcons.

The Cumberland Middle School Football team traveled to Clear Lake last Tuesday, with the 7th grade winning 28-16 and the 8th grade dropping a 34-14 contest.

The Seventh graders scored twice through the air and twice from the ground in their victory. Quarterback David Olson threw a touchdown pass to Vaughn Johnson, while Ed Chafer hit Nick Kasper for another score. Alex Guillen and Kasper each added long touchdown runs to complete the Beavers scoring. Brock Reidy and Kasper added fumble recoveries for the Cumberland defense.

The 8th grades first score came on a Gavin Jarchow 67-yard return of a Warrior fumble that came after a Blake Siebert quarterback sack. The Beavers other score came on a 21-yard run. Connor Morrison had a fumble recovery for the Beavers, while Siebert also had a punt block.

Soccer Team Wins Twice; Host Amery This Thursday

The Cumberland Soccer game won a pair of games last week, defeating Spooner 5-0 and Somerset 4-1. "We have definitely improved on finishing our games and it showed last week. We are on the right path to meeting our team goals that we set at the beginning of the season" stated Coach Larry Ruetz after the two victories.

Erik Sandman had a big night in the shutout over Spooner, scoring three times. Johnnie Richie also played well with a pair of assists and a goal. The final score came from Freshman-Tanner Johnson on a penalty kick. Coach Ruetz credited his defense, led by Max Brenna and Richie, with "Very good games."

The Beavers kept this momentum going with another Conference win two days later. Somerset grabbed an early lead, only to see the Beavers score four straight times for a 4-1 win.

Scoring for the Beavers were Erik Sandman, Ethan Sandman, and Lukas Bruehl, who scored twice. It was Erik Sandman's tenth goal of the season.

The JV also played at Somerset, losing 2-0, although Ruetz said, "The team did some nice things."

The Beavers played at Spooner on Monday and then host Middle Border favorite Amery this Thursday at 4:30 pm.

First Bear

Hello friends,
When my daughter, Selina Walters was ten-years-old I transferred my black bear hunting tag to her for that falls hunting season. That tenth summer of Selina's life she put in at least a hundred hours running baits with me in northern Juneau County on what is a very physical job.

When hunting season arrived, Selina passed up two different bear, one was too small and the other was a sow with one and a half year old cubs, not the standard six-month old cubs that most hunters are accustomed to seeing with a sow.

That sow was enormous and came to her bait twice.

When Selina was 14, she received her first bear tag via the Zone C drawing. That was two years ago. Once again she put in at least a hundred hours running baits and on the stand she hunted 17-nights and did not see a bear.

This year Selina is 16, she obtained her drivers license in August and last January another Zone C permit to hunt bear. Without a doubt I have never seen such a slow season for running baits from our start date in early July until this very moment.

Selina and I ran nine baits, which cover 46-miles of driving and our walks were from 400-yards to a mile. In that time period, we did not have one day hit in August or September but did have some nice bear coming in after dark.

About bear baiting/hunting! I honestly believe that the hundreds of hours that Selina has put in the woods and marshes, the sweat, the work and the observing nature from a tree stand is a huge reason why she has such an incredible work ethic, love for nature, no fear and the plan of becoming a wildlife biologist.

This years stress for myself as we entered the 35-day season is that Selina is simply over scheduled in that thing called life. She is a first year President of her school's DECA Chapter, very active with The National Honor Society, works four shifts a weeks at the Necedah Kwik Trip, has a friend from "Brookwood" and is a runner on the schools cross country team.

Just the cross country story is very cool when you think that ten months ago we were taking her to her deer stand on a deer cart after she blew out her left knee and had to go through six-months of therapy which thankfully avoided surgery.

Saturday, September 9th
High 72, low 44

All of the above was on my mind as I dropped Selina off for what would be the fourth night on Wisconsin's bear season and drove my truck to where I make my half-mile trek into the woods.

Selina was adamant that she could carry her bait, re-bait if needed and do the 16-foot climb into her tree without her dads help.

So we text each other and on this hunt, Selina had three separate deer and a porcupine experience and I kept telling her that this was an excellent sign. The fact that her bait had been hit was good news as well.

I am 20-feet up in a red pine and love the view and doing nothing for four hours but watching the forest. Selina is maybe a one and a half miles away and at 7:10 I heard a beautiful sound. It was what I was confident was her 30:06 being fired twice.

Less than a minute later I got a text in capital letters GOT ONE! Then another text that said it didn't even run far. Without a doubt those were the best texts of my life.

So here is where things get crazy. I am hunting a bear that is in the 500-pound range and stay up in the red pine until dark. As I am making my way to Selina, which is a two and a half mile walk and a drive; a sow comes into her bait with two cubs and Selina's gun is empty and on the ground. Thankfully the sow leaves without incident.

Selina's brother Joey Duskek, his girlfriend Ashley Potter and my other bear hunting partner, Doug Cibulka all were a part of getting Selina's trophy out of the woods. It was 1:00 a.m. before we were home and the bear was iced and hanging.

A rug will be made, the meat will be consumed but the memory is one of the best that I have so far as a father. Good work Goof!

Dad

CC Team In Busy Stretch

The Cumberland Cross Country Team ran at Chetek last week, where the girls team finished fourth and the boys team fifth in the nine team field. Cameron was the girls team champion, while Bloomer took first in the boys field.

"We had a nice effort at Chetek and several of our kids are setting personal bests each time they run. I'm very happy how the kids are working and improving," said Coach Tanya Majewski.

The girls Medalist was Ladysmiths Erica Loe, who ran a 20:55. Cumberlands Teagan Benson continued her fine season with a 24:15, good for a team best 6th place. Naomi Rodriguez finished 13th with a 25:23, while Kate Stone ran a 27:09, Val Pasko a 28:14, Skyler Ruetz a 28:50, and Ali Stevens a 28:53.

The boys individual Champion was Bloomers Alex Conrad, who ran a 17:55. The Beavers Gavin Fountaine was a solid fourth with a 18:26, while Zach Hullander continued his weekly improvement with a 20:04, good for 13th. Logan Steglich added a 21:51, Raven Broker a 21:49, Wayne Ankarlo a 21:51, and Konur Pasko a 24:34.

The Beavers host their own Invitational next Monday, September 25 at the Cumberland Golf Course. The Meet starts at 4:30 pm.

Barronett News By Judy Pieper

The Color Fest was even better this year than last. The weather was almost perfect, especially on Sunday when it cooled down slightly. There were so many arts and craft tables set up on Saturday morning that it was hard to choose which item a person just could not live without. And I bought rutabagas from Gary Moore for the Scandinavian dinner, which is coming up on the first Saturday in November.

The pie and ice cream social, hosted by the women of Barronett Lutheran, was very busy all weekend. We all enjoy chatting with the people who stop by to have a piece of pie. This year we were selling our new cookbooks too. If you didn't happen to pickup a cookbook and would like one, just give me (or any of the other women of the church) a call and we will be sure to get one to you.

The dunk tank was a huge draw again this year. Bill and Debbie Carothers were kept very busy taking in money and retrieving balls. The brave souls who manned the hot seat were: Daniel Nelsen; Emmery Nelsen; Blake Flach; Tyler Schunk; Fireman Ronnie; Fireman Barry; Tracy Thompson; Marc (Mr. Custard); Emily (soon to be Mrs. Bartz); Michael F. (Mr. C130); Barb Tschida; Jenö (Bistro 63) Hippy (one of a kind); Steve (Irv's co-worker); Jamie Anderson; and last but not least, Ben (20 Mile). Now, I know those are not really last names that are in parentheses, but that's how they signed the roster, so I think that's the way they want their names to be listed. We hope they know how much we appreciated having a chance to dunk them. Well, most of us thought it was fun when they fell in the water. Little two-year-old Kane Thon threw balls at the target, hit it and got to dunk Daniel Nelsen, and then felt very bad that Daniel fell in the water. He just didn't understand the concept of the game at all. Next year he'll probably like it.

McKenzie O'Flanagan and Audrey Lehmann were the lucky kids who found the Barronett Brick. Peg Thompson said that the two girls really worked at it. They were reading all the clues and following every lead and finally came in with the brick. Congratulations to you two.

The winners of the cooking contest this year were: First, Sharai Hefty with a dessert she called B. R. Puffinsquash; second, Dennis Free with a spaghetti squash hot dish; and third Barb Pease with spiced squash muffins. Sharai will be picking out the ingredient for next year, and I'll let you know what it is so you can start planning your entry to next year's contest.

Gloria Gunderson took first prize in the produce contest with her amazingly large zucchini.

The winners of the men's slow pitch softball tournament were: First-A & A tire; second-Timberland Bar and Grill, and third-Diesterhafts.

Ginger Neitzel was the winner of $100 worth of scratch off tickets which were donated by Tracy Thompson of Cumberland Tire.

There were probably close to a hundred winners in the raffles, but I'll just tell you the top seven. Number 7-$100 donated by Potvin Trucking and Jaastad Machine, was won by Julie Mullikin. Number 6, a bistro set donated by Barronett Civic Club, was won by Jane Nickell. Number 5, $100 donated by Barronett Civic Club, was won by Dick Sparish. Number 4, a .22 rifle with a scope, donated by Barronett Civic Club, was won by Caroline Greener. Number 3, two wooden items donated by Made For You Furniture, was won by Ron Sandve. Number 2, a canoe, donated by Barronett Civic Club and Bonnie Fogelberg, was won by Bud Scalzo, and number 1, a Gill Getter Fishing Trip, donated by Triple A Sports, was won by Doug Sweet. Congratulations to all the lucky winners.

Like I said, there were many, many prizes donated by different businesses in the area and it would take pages to name them all. But, the Civic Club members want everyone who so generously donated prizes for the raffle to know how much they appreciate it. The money taken in on raffle sales is used for good causes in the community. And, the Civic Club members want to thank everyone who helped during the weekend, whether you were in the kitchen, coordinating events, selling raffle tickets or doing anything else it took to keep things running smoothly. It is definitely a joint effort, and they truly appreciate all the help. And of course, they want to thank everyone who stopped by to join in the fun and they hope you come back next year and bring more friends with you.

On Sunday afternoon we were all treated to music by Ron Helstern and John Sedor. To say it was great is probably the understatement of the year. In addition to playing guitars, which I think were hand crafted by Ron, they told stories and bantered with the audience. I hope we will be treated to another concert by the two of them soon.

Kathy Mason mentioned that the Fall Fest will be held on September 30th at the Cumberland Senior Center.

I'm sure there will be lots of things to do and good food to eat. She said that they will be holding a silent auction and, I think, a raffle. Some of the items that will be on auction or raffle are: an air pellet rifle with scope, donated by Ken Pendleton; a Ducks Unlimited print, donated by Angel; and a Russian wooden church, donated by Gene Lindemann. That's coming up fast, so mark your calendar, go to the Fall Fest, and have lots of fun.

Arnie Scheel has a joke for us this week, it goes like this: Why did the dieter go to the paint store? Answer: She wanted to get thinner. Okay, you have to admit, that's pretty funny.

I guess that's about all I know from Barronett this week. Enjoy this beautiful fall weather. See you next time.

Senior News By Gloria Lindeman

I decided to write a column again, I don't know how long it will last-I will see.

I want everyone to know that the Cumberland Senior Center will be having our annual Fall Festival on Saturday, September 30th from 9:00 a.m. till 2:00 p.m. We will have the usual silent auction, raffles, and thrift sale items. We will also be selling chili, treats and coffee.

We had planned to start some of our raffle items at the Rutabaga Festival, but we got rained out. So we started our raffle going at the center for: A wooden church made from a kit, a large picture and a rifle/pellet gun. We will have lots more items to raffle at our Fall Festival, so come and participate. It's a fun event.

We had Bingo on Thursday. You can join us for Bingo once a month, on the second Thursday, at 1:00 p.m. It's lots of fun and laughs. Coffee and treats are served too. It's a nice way to spend an afternoon.

Look for our flyers around the area-hope to see you at our Fall Festival. Enjoy the beautiful weather we are having.

Till next week-take care.

American Pickers to Film in Wisconsin

Mike Wolfe, Frank Fritz, and their team are excited to return to Wisconsin! They plan to film episodes of the hit series American Pickers throughout the region in October 2017!

American Pickers is a documentary series that explores the fascinating world of antique 'picking' on History. The hit show follows Mike and Frank, two of the most skilled pickers in the business, as they hunt for America's most valuable antiques. They are always excited to find sizeable, unique collections and learn the interesting stories behind them.

As they hit the back roads from coast to coast, Mike and Frank are on a mission to recycle and rescue forgotten relics. Along the way, the Pickers want to meet characters with remarkable and exceptional items.

The pair hopes to give historically significant objects a new lease on life, while learning a thing or two about America's past along the way.

Mike and Frank have seen a lot of rusty gold over the years and are always looking to discover something they've never seen before. They are ready to find extraordinary items and hear fascinating tales about them.

American Pickers is looking for leads and would love to explore your hidden treasure. If you or someone you know has a large, private collection or accumulation of antiques that the Pickers can spend the better part of the day looking through, send us your name, phone number, location and description of the collection with photos to: americanpickers@cineflix.com or call 855-OLD-RUST.

Noodles in the cow pasture

Noodles – Our Talking Cow

Animals are much more intelligent than most people realize. While many people know that cats and dogs know their names, and many dogs will obey certain commands, what about a cow that will carry on a conversation with a person? Sounds kind of far-fetched, but I have a cow that will talk with me. Now, many of us are familiar with Mr. ED, the talking horse on the TV show from many years ago. He would talk only to Wilbur Post, but as we all know he really didn't talk, that was Hollywood. Our cow Noodles though will talk to any one of us.

When a person is born into this world, they are given a name, so likewise, when we have a calf born here, we give them a name also. And we call them by their names the rest of their lives. When we go out to the cow pasture to

Weekly Messages By Area Pastors

"Paying It Forward"

By: Pastor Randy Skow-Anderson
Augustana Lutheran Church

For the last three years, we have been sending worshippers on their way with the saying "Celebrate Jesus Live the Love."

This is based on the question "What is the greatest commandment?" Jesus' reply is Love God and love your neighbor. One thing I know is that we can't out-love God. We can only reflect God's love through loving our neighbor.

Romans 5:6-8: For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly...But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

We can't pay God back for what God has done for us, we can only PAY IT FORWARD.

Romans 3:23: For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

When twelve-year-old Trevor McKinley begins seventh grade in Atascadero, California, his social studies teacher gives the class an assignment to devise and put into action a plan that will change the world for the better. Trevor's plan is a charitable program based on the networking of good deeds. He calls it plan "Pay It Forward," which means the recipient of a favor does a favor for three others, rather than paying the favor back. However, it needs to be a major favor that the receiver can't complete themselves. Trevor first begins by helping Jerry, a jobless man who was unable to find a home. However, he seemingly forgets to complete three favors and ends up in prison. Next, Trevor directly helps social studies teacher, Mr. Reuben St. Clair. Finally, he helps Mrs. Greenberg, who however, eventually dies. But without Trevor's knowledge, she had helped three friends by giving them $8,333 in her will. One of them, Matt, meets an injured gangster in an alleyway. After helping the man, it turns out that the gangster helped another man, who also spared the life of his lifetime rival as his favor. Seeing the chain, Chris Chandler, a reporter, connects the dots, and finds Trevor. Even further, Trevor's mother, whose father had left, strikes a relationship with Mr. St. Clair, Trevor's Social Studies teacher, and Jerry is heard from again, helping a lady not to commit suicide. The novel details of how Trevor's Pay It Forward attempts are successful or not successful and how some of the "Pay It Forward" chains result happenings such as Trevor meeting the President, and Trevor's untimely death, which was made by one last person to help in his Pay It Forward 'project' which soon turned into "The Movement."

Who knows how 'Live the Love' will effect another person's life.

Remember, we can't pay God back for what God has done for us, we can only PAY IT FORWARD.

God's Blessing and Peace to all.

OBITUARIES...

C. Duane Johnson

My husband, our father, (Charles) Duane Johnson was born on December 20, 1927 to Herman and Mary (Holdeman) Johnson in Medina County, Ohio. He peacefully passed away on the evening of September 13, 2017 at Bethel Home in Montezuma, Kansas, at the age of 89.

When he was nine years old, the family moved to Summerdale, Alabama. This move he well remembered and often spoke of it. It was here at the age of 14, that he gave his heart to God and was baptized into the Church of God in Christ, Mennonite. He was faithful to his vows until the end.

In 1946 the family made another move to DeRidder Louisiana. He left home at age 20 to find employment in Hesston, Kansas where he worked for one year, after which he decided to go back to DeRidder to help his dad on the dairy.

In July 1950 he went to California to see his sister Theda and brother-in-law Harvey Dyck, found a job and a wife and stayed for 16 years. Mildred Koehn became his wife on April 1, 1951.

Dad worked at G&M Manufacturing in Winton, California for several years, where he developed a love for welding and working with metal. He then worked for a farmer as a mechanic and also had his own small almond orchard and home on Longview Avenue at Atwater, California. Seven children were born to them in these years.

Having lived his childhood in Ohio, he always wanted to return to the north, and in June of 1966 the family moved to Cumberland. Another child was born here completing their family. Here on the dairy farm they lived and loved and toiled for 33 years and also enjoyed playing games with their children and grandchildren.

In 1999 they moved to a small home in Almena. They then served in Albuquerque as house parents and in Seymour, Wisconsin as missionaries. Dad also delivered Meals on Wheels for many years.

On July 1, 2014 Dad and Mom moved into Bethel Home at Montezuma, Kansas, where he received exceptional love and care.

Dad loved the church and her lineage and would enthusiastically share this vision with others. Now he has gone on before us to heaven and we want to meet him there.

Left to cherish his memories are his wife, Milly; eight children: Mary and Cris Friesen, Muleshoe, Texas, Lester and Pam Johnson, Cumberland, Gilbert and Leah Johnson, Almena, David and Marjorie Johnson, Kings Mountain, Kentucky, Joyce and Orlin Reimer, Leoville, Saskatchewan, Renetta and Warren Koehn, Almena, Shirley and Steve Nightingale, Ulysses, Kansas, Rayanne Copp and son-in-law Ammer Copp, Iroquois, South Dakota; 28 grandchildren; three step grandchildren; 42 great grandchildren; and six step great grandchildren; two brothers: Chester and Mae Johnson and Richard Johnson; and three sisters: Theda, Mrs. Harvey Dyck, Thelma, Mrs. Dewey Koehn, Roberta, Mrs. Delbert Nikkel; and one brother-in-law, Stanley and Joyce Koehn and many nephews and nieces. He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers and three sisters.

Funeral service were held at Gospel Mennonite Church in Almena on Monday, September 18, 2017. Burial was at Bethany Cemetery in Comstock.

Pallbearers were Mark Friesen, Raymond Johnson, Matthew Johnson, Charles Johnson, Allen Reimer, Karsten Koehn, Darcy Nightingale and Jonathan Copp.

Skinner Funeral Home of Cumberland served the family.

Life on the Family Farm...

bring them to the barn, they will usually be scattered all around, lying down enjoying the day and the lush green grass, with the barn swallows and red-winged blackbirds flying about singing to them. We start calling them by name, and one by one, when they hear their name called out, they will rise to their feet and head towards the barn.

Now you ask, "A real talking cow?" My answer is, "Yes, but not quite like you think." Let me introduce you to Noodles. She is a cross-bred cow that is a Montbeliarde-Ayrshire-Holstein. She is black and white in color and very friendly. She is an excellent cow and a joy to have in our barn. And normally we talk to her everyday and she likes it.

But how does she talk you ask? I'll explain. We ask her questions and she always answers by shaking her head yes or no. Sometimes this comes in very handy when we want to find out information that we don't know. But, we always test her first to make sure she understands us and is telling the truth. We ask her questions first that we know the answer to, such as, "Do you like good corn silage?" She will respond by shaking her head up and down. Then we will ask, "Do you like moldy hay?" She will respond by shaking her head sideways saying, "No." Then we will ask if a cat ran in front of her in the last couple of minutes and she will tell us that correctly. When we are sure that she is clearly understanding us and answering our questions correctly, and she always does, then we ask her a question that we don't know the answer to. A question I asked her just recently was, "Did a coyote go through the pasture last night when you were out there?" She responded by vigorously shaking her head, "No." I was relieved with her answer since I have a cow calf out there at night sometimes and I don't want a coyote killing a new born calf.

Noodles is a very special cow to us, but then all our cows are. It amazes us how God has made all the animals so unique and special. One thing really unique about dairy farming is interacting with all the different animals. It's wonderful when we can take good care of them and they let us know by a soft moo or a gentle lick of their tongue or a light bump with their nose. It blesses us. How much more isn't it with God when we His children love Him and say, "Thank you" to Him for all His wonderful care for us. And how much more shouldn't we do that considering He gave His only Son Jesus to redeem us back to Himself. If Noodles talks to me, her owner, and she most certainly does, how much more shouldn't we talk to our Heavenly Father who loves us so?

Clayton Police Chief...

ping down due to Pickard's behavior.

The recorded phone call led to authorities picking Pickard up at his office, where he was stripped of his badge, uniform and service weapon and even searched for hidden weapons before he was arrested and taken into custody.

He appeared in Polk

County Circuit Court on Wednesday, September 13th, where the court found probable cause and he was bound over. His arraignment is scheduled for Tuesday, September 26, 2017.

If convicted of all eight charges he could be fined not more than $70,000 or imprisoned for more than 16 years.

Saferide Program: Over Three Decades of Success

Now in its 32nd year, the Tavern League of Wisconsin's SafeRide Program continues to be a model for the rest of the nation. The Tavern League's commitment to keep impaired drivers off Wisconsin's roads is documented in its recently released SafeRide Survey of more than 60 counties in the state. In 2016-2017, TLW-member establishments provided 95,203 free rides home to their patrons, a 15.8 percent increase from the previous year.

Thanks in part to the SafeRide program, Wisconsin has witnessed a 58 percent decline in alcohol related fatalities over the last ten years while also experiencing a 47 percent decrease in injuries and a 38 percent reduction in crashes. In recent years the number of SafeRides provided increased over 150 percent, while program operations were expanded to 62 Wisconsin counties.

The cost of the SafeRide program, which is nearly $1 million, is shared by hard-working TLW members as well as funds generated by surcharges on OWI convictions.

According to TLW Executive Director Pete Madland, the program's status as the largest and most successful alternative transportation program in the country to address the issue of operating a motor vehicle while impaired, is due to TLW members.

"We are very proud of our members who volunteer their time to ensure the program continues to thrive."

The Tavern League's SafeRide program has become so well-known throughout the country, Madland adds, it's now considered the standard for other states as they strive to eliminate drunk driving on their roadways. In fact, the National Conference of Mayors has recognized the SafeRide program for its effort to reduce alcohol-related crashes and fatalities.

DATCP Alert: Equifax Data Breach-Phone Scams are the Next Risk

In the aftermath of the recent Equifax data breach, the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP) asks Wisconsin residents to be on the lookout for unsolicited calls requesting sensitive personal or financial information.

An event of this scale is sure to bring scammers out of the woodwork, and one of the potential risks at this point is con artists preying on consumers through misinformation. Neither Equifax nor any bank will call you and request your Social Security number or other sensitive details. If you receive an unsolicited call from someone who claims that they can verify whether your information was affected in the breach or that they provide services to affected consumers, hang up the phone. Do not engage with the caller and do not provide any information.

Be wary of a call from someone claiming to be from your lending institution. Hang up and call the institution back at a number listed in the phone book, in one of your statements, or on the business's website. Never return a call on the number provided to you in an unsolicited call, and do not trust that the information on your caller ID is accurate.

If you wish to find out if your information was affected in the data breach, visit www.equifaxsecurity2017.com. Equifax has also set up a call center to address consumer questions. The call center can be reached at 866-447-7559 from 6:00 a.m. to midnight, Central Time, seven days a week. Due to high call volumes, Equifax suggests trying to call after 4:00 p.m.

If your information was impacted, download a copy of DATCP's "Data Breach: What to do if it happens to you" fact sheet, pull a free copy of your credit report at www.annualcreditreport.com and place a fraud alert on your credit record. More information about the situation is available on our data breach page or in our recent Consumer Alert.

For additional information, visit the Consumer Protection Bureau at <http://datcp.wisconsin.gov>, send an e-mail to datcp@datcp.wisconsin.gov or call the Consumer Protection Hotline at 1-800-422-7128.

Calling All Singers

Enrichment Through Culture and the Cumberland Music Club will begin rehearsals for their 50th annual Christmas Concert on Monday, October 2nd at 7:00 p.m.

Choir Director John Westin stated, "We will be at St. Paul Lutheran Church this year and all are welcome to join us. Since this is our half-century celebration, we are planning a somewhat "retro" concert to recognize the contributions of past directors and singers. Please consider being part of our group and thank you for always supporting music in Cumberland.

Energy Assistance season begins

There are some changes to the program for 2017-18. The Wisconsin Home Energy Assistance Program (WHEAP) provides assistance for heating costs and electric costs (one-time payment). Operating with federal and state funding, the program provides assistance to approximately 225,000 Wisconsin households annually.

WHEAP begins October 1, 2017 and ends May 15, 2018. Please call 715-537-5691 to request an application be mailed. If you have not applied for energy assistance in the past, policy requires your identity be verified, which can be done any time between 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., Monday - Friday at Barron County Department of Health and Human Services reception desk. If you would like to complete a face-to-face appointment instead of completing the paper application, please call to schedule an appointment after September 20, 2017.

The State has implemented one major change for the 2017-18 Heating Season: Applicants who have completed a mail-in application for two consecutive years will need to complete an application interview with a worker either by phone or in person.
