Cumberland celebrates our Independence!

by Hope Lee Vicich

One of my favorite pieces of trivia about the Independence Day is that John Adams, who was a member of the committee which drafted the Declaration of Independence, signer of the Declaration, and our second President, is directly responsible for how we celebrate the birth of our nation.

He wrote in a letter home to his wife Abigail that: "I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated, by succeeding generations, as the Great Anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the Day of Deliverance by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with Pomp and Parade, with Shews, Games, Sports, Guns, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this continent to the other from this time forward forever more."

Having been given such guidance, we here in Cumberland do our part to fulfill his vision, thanks to the Chamber of Commerce. If you are anywhere near Cumberland this July 4th, you should come on down to Tourist Park and enjoy a day of fun, food and family, capped off by the area's biggest fireworks display!

This year's festivities kick-off on Tuesday night July 3rd at 8:00 p.m. until midnight in the GAP Pavilion with live music by the band Paisan.

Then on Wednesday morning the 4th of July fun begins at the Firehouse with the annual Cumberland Fireman's Pancake Breakfast from 7:00 to 11:00 am. They accept "free will offerings" with the proceeds going to support the Fire Department.

It was a Hot Time in the Old Town!

Tourist Park was the place to go to beat the heat last Friday, June 29th. The temperature was around 95 degrees and the heat index over 100!

Two airlifted after collision

On Tuesday, June 26, 2018, at 1:16 p.m., the Barron County Sheriff's Department was advised of a two vehicle crash on Highway 8 at 17th Avenue just east of Barron with multiple people ejected.

Deputies from the Barron County Sheriff's Department, along with Barron Fire, Gold Cross Ambulance, Lakeview Medical Center Ambulance, Life Link Helicopter and Barron County First Responders, responded to the scene.

Initial investigation shows a Toyota Prius, driven by Brenda Lillard, 65, of Barron, pulled from the stop sign on 17th Avenue and struck a truck driven by Michael Rasmussen, 46, of Eau Claire. Lillard was treated at the scene and released. Rasmussen was ejected from the truck and flown out with serious, but non-life threatening injuries. A passenger in the truck, Kevin Walker, 36, of Eau Claire, was also ejected and was transported to Mayo Hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

Something You Should Know About... Old and New, Cumberland has a lot to offer!

As gas prices start to slowly creep up, I find myself trying to avoid any more driving than necessary. This means I have been paying more attention, lately, to what is available to us here in Cumberland. It has made me realize that, for the most part, if you need it, you can find it right here in town. Whether from established businesses or some promising newcomers, Cumberland truly has "something for everybody!" We all know that if you are hungry, Cumberland is full of great places to eat - The Spot, Nezy's, Corner Bar, Lakeside Restaurant and just a little out of town, Bona Casa and the Turn out at Cumberland Golf Course. This is Abby Geisler's second year at the helm of the restaurant in the Golf Club. Besides her famous "Pot Roast Cheeseburger" Abby is always coming up with new and enticing menu items and specials. They are open to the public for lunch and dinner, so go check it out. Just a little ways out of town you can find fine dining at the 5 O'Clock Club and Bistro 63 in Barronett. If you want something faster, there is always the perennial favorite Dairy Queen or our local Subway and Burger King. We even get visits from food trucks! Thursday, Panda Chinese can be found in the Das Lach Haus parking lot, and on Friday, Poor Schmuck BBQ can be found in front of Island Wines. That too slow, too? Kwik Trip, Bob & Steve's and the Holiday Station Store all have yummy treats so you can fill up your body while you top off your car. Want to fix your own? We have the World Famous Louie's Finer Meats right here! At the other end of town is our local Nilssen's Foods with their own line of award winning products. Starting the last Saturday in July, we will have our own Farmer's Market in the Municipal parking lot (behind the Library) each week through the end of September, 8 a.m through Noon. There is also the Cumberland Food Co-op and Bakery. Featuring local, organic and speciality foods, as well as fresh bakery products, it is a great place to start your day with some coffee and a fresh pastry! Speaking of coffee and a bite to eat, Peter & Annie's has their cafe to fill your cups with anything from black coffee to flavored lattes, espressos and cappuccinos. They also offer breakfast and lunch items until 2 p.m. everyday. Our Place Cafe also welcomes you for breakfast, lunch and a great cup of Joe! Later in the day, if you are looking for refreshment with out a meal attached, stop into one of our local watering holes. The Hammer, Bourbon's, Club Cumberland and Das Lach Haus will gladly cater to your need for a cold drink! Like to take some home? Stop at Louie's Lodge or Island Wines and take advantage of their fine selections of wines, beers and other potent potables. Most of the bars and clubs in town offer off-sale beer as well. Find yourself in need of some clothes? Cumberland has you covered! Peter & Annie's has a large selection of women's clothing for all sizes, and just down the street are Mainstream Boutique and Twice as Nice, with great choices for your closet, too. For the men in town, Caz' Men's store can find your fit from casual all the way to a tuxedo for your special occasions. We even have your kids dressing in style from Tiny Friends. Heather Friess and her daughter, Carly, opened their boutique last summer and it is a one stop shop for new and gently loved kids clothing, toys and accessories. Of course, if you've got new clothes, you need a new hairdo! Ficocello's Salon & Day Spa, and Capelli Salon have beautifying Cumberland residents for many years. Though the Hair Company Salon has closed its doors, Cumberland's gentlemen can still get their grooming needs taken care of in the Barber Shop (a.k.a "The Man Cave"). You can access them through the "side" door on Grove Street. There are two new additions to the salon scene, as well. Joining Kathy Zappa of Color Me Red Nail & Hair Salon in the Design Nail & Hair building is Ashley Paf-fel. Ashley decided to open Aspire after many years with the Hair Company. Dawn Allen has started her own shop across the street in the Magic Touch Salon building. Hair by Dawn is the name, great hair styles is her game! Need to burn off some of those calories so you can fit in those new clothes? We have Sunshine Fitness and the Cumberland Fitness Center (located in the High School) to help you get back in shape. Now that your outer well-ness is assured, Cumberland can care for your inner-self as well. In addition to the comprehensive medical care and services offered by Cumberland Healthcare and the Marshfield Clinic, Cumberland boasts a number of speciality services as well. Jacobson Advanced Eye Care will keep you seeing all of the great things Cumberland has to offer; Sikorski Hearing will keep the sounds of nature ringing in your ears; and Toftness Clinic, Blue Hills Chiropractic, Cumberland Chiropractic, Deb's

Cumberland was among the 735 schools and school districts that requested grant funds, but was not awarded their grant request of $78,920.00 at this time.

Cumberland Healthcare Foundation hosted 6th Annual Golf Classic

Something you should know about...

Chiropractic and Magic Touch Massage are all ready to make sure you are aligned and relaxed. Nontraditional medicine is also represented by newcomer Aspen Acupuncture. Stacey Richette's new venture, located in the expanding Magic Touch Massage building, offers alternative treatments for life's ailments.

Then we have a super list of professional services as well. Three attorneys all hang their shingles around Main Street. Kathryn Ault, Anthony Berg and Joe Schieffer can all offer legal advice when you need it. Do you have a computer in need of service? Go no further than ATS on Main Street. Johnson, Agen and Kupferschmit, and Mark Ricci, CPA are on hand to help with your accounting and tax needs. Need something printed? Stop in to the Printer's Den. How about promotional items and custom design services? The ladies at Creative Identity and Barb's Custom Imprint Shop are just the folks to get it done.

By now, all of these wonderful businesses should have you thinking "Hey! I want to live there!" If that is the case then Edina Realty, Lakeplace.com Brothers Realty and the newly re-branded Re/Max Northstar will gladly help you find a new house and/or sell your old one. They have a new ally in town, too. Lake Title Company is taking over the former Hair Company Salon space on the corner of Second and Grove and will be there to make closings and other property title matters easier with that "local" touch.

Now that you are buying that new house, you'll need a way to finance it. Cumberland Federal Bank, Dairy State Bank and US Bank stand at the ready to help with all your banking and financing needs.

What if that new house (or your old one) needs some repairs or improvements? You need go no further because Cumberland can "fix" you up there, too! Just go see the your friends at Lampert's Lumber downtown, or up the road, the "friendly hardware folks" at Cumberland Ace Hardware. Building materials, paint, tools and equipment, whatever you need to fix it up right! Looking for a place to lay your head? Paul Nelson has your flooring and mattress needs covered in his new space on Main Street. If you want a new fireplace or wood stove go see Kindled Hearth. How about a new furnace or air conditioning? Dirk's Heating & Cooling is the place for you.

You'll want the yard and garden to look great, right? Then Odden Flowers can hook you up with flowers, plants, trees, shrubs and landscaping materials. In addition, Cumberland High School graduate, Lucas West, has taken over the former Dragonfly Garden greenhouse on Hwy. 63 west of Comstock. He has a wide variety of vegetable plants, flowers, and garden plants, as well as fresh produce from his own gardens for sale. And Peg Thompson has her greenhouse on Hwy. 63 just outside of Barronett. Her season is in full swing and she would love to share her wide variety of plants and other garden products with you.

If you want flowers for inside the house or special occasions, Odden's, Peter & Annie's and newcomer 5 Star Floral can help you there, too. Located on the Skinner Funeral Home property, 5 Star Floral is the new venture of Ashley Gagner, and they look forward to helping you with flowers for any occasion.

If you are looking for home decor, stop into Dancing Bird Gallery for works of art by local artists, or Rustic Door for super cute repurposed furniture and accessories. A visit to Cumberland Pawn is always a good idea, too. Their always changing inventory will nab you some great bargains on all sorts of new and used items.

If you are fortunate and that new house is on one of the area's beautiful lakes, then you may need a new dock to take advantage of it! Cumberland Boat Storage, Dock & Lift has opened a new storefront on Main Street and would love to show you their products either there or at the shop on Hwy. 63 by Cumberland Ace Hardware. Indianhead Sport Shop, on Hwy. 63 at the other end of town, has DAKA docks to offer as well.

Like to have a boat or pontoon to tie up at the new dock? Head on over to Don Johnson Motors and Marine.

Let's say you don't own a lake home but want to take advantage of the sporting opportunities available on those lakes. Once again, stop at Indianhead Sport Shop. They will fill all your fishing needs and tell a few good "fish stories," too! Indianhead is a great resource for hunting supplies, too. For hiking, kayaking or canoeing, no better place to visit than Idlewild Outfitters.

If you prefer hunting, you may need a new gun. In which case stop and see Mark Beauville at .357 Guns. Whether it's rifles or handguns, new or used .357 Guns will find the one that's right for you! See them for ammo and accessories, too. Mark just opened his store in the JT Auto Sales complex next to Ace Hardware on Hwy. 63.

That reminds me! You may need a car or truck to tow that boat or get you to the lake. Talk to Jim Wackerfuss at JT Auto or stop in at Don Johnson's Cumberland location and they can find just the right vehicle for you. Need tires or repairs? We have JJS Autobody, Pete's Auto & Customs, Thompson Car Care and Cumberland Tire at your service! Like to "do it yourself?" Then AutoValue has all the parts and products you need.

If after the house, car, clothes, etc. you still have some money to invest then Cumberland has the people to help you with your strategy. Edward Jones, Wealth Management, Thrivent Financial and Alternativa Solutions can offer advice on current investments or help you plan for your future.

Do you need any other reasons to make that future here in Cumberland? For one, we can keep you entertained! Visit the Thomas St. Angelo Public Library, as a start. Books, music, movies, computer games and internet access are just the beginning. The Library also offers a full slate of guest lectures and other activities for patrons young and old. Every Tuesday night throughout the Summer, you can treat yourself to an outdoor concert on the shores of Library Lake featuring local artists and bands. Then there is the upcoming Fourth of July Fireworks Spectacular at Tourist Park, hosted by the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce and featuring the areas finest fireworks display.

I couldn't talk about summer fun in Cumberland without mentioning the ever-popular Rutabaga Festival. Cumberland's premier event and our farewell to Summer will be held this year on August 23-26.

We are also lucky to have other communities a short distance away that offer other fun food and shopping opportunities. Take a short drive to Almena, Barronett and Comstock to enjoy what they have to offer.

As you can see, there are plenty of reasons to stay in and around Cumberland. We certainly hope you do!

EYE FACTS from JACOBSON ADVANCED EYE CARE

July = Fireworks = Eye Injuries

The Fourth of July is a time of joy and celebration for all Americans. Don't let an accident spoil your celebration. Each year, thousands of people are injured by fireworks and almost half of those injured are children and teenagers -- and many of those are eye injuries. Fireworks can cause devastating and life-changing injuries that range from skin burns and thermal burns of the eye to bleeding in the eye, retinal detachment, and even a ruptured globe and blindness.

Simple ways to protect yourself and your children include staying at least 500 feet away from fireworks, allowing trained professionals to light fireworks and not allowing children to handle any fireworks. If you find unexploded fireworks, call your police or fire department to dispose of them. Do not touch them or try to light them.

If you suffer an eye injury due to fireworks, give us a call immediately and follow these instructions:

Do not rub the eyes • Do not rinse the eyes • Do not apply pressure
Do not put on ointments or take any blood thinning pain medications
(aspirin, ibuprofen)

Enjoy our Independence Day by attending your city-sponsored safe fireworks display.

By Craig Bucher

The announcement of the pending retirement of Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy has people, all over the country, in a tizzy. Most Republicans are jumping for joy while most Democrats are crying in their beer. Never has it been clearer, that elections do matter. Democrats are bemoaning the election of Donald Trump. Well, they should as many of them just stayed home in 2016 and didn't vote. For their lack of effort we got President Donald Trump and all that means. Galatians (6:7) tells us - "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." 2 Corinthians (9:6) says - "He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully." The most important legacy of "Trumpism" will not be his foreign policy or his immigration policy or even his trade policy or economic policy, it will be the appointment of men or women to the United States Supreme Court. It is a legacy that will last 30 or even 40 years. I believe it will significantly change the direction of this country. Can it be stopped? Not completely, but if you believe "Trumpism" should be at least curtailed, then I suggest you get out and vote this November. We are reaping what we have sown but maybe we can begin to sow with more bounty so we can reap more bountifully. Let your voice be heard. As you can see - elections do matter.

I hope all readers have a restful and peaceful 4th of July. Enjoy friends and family and remember to be thankful for the country we have and want to keep.
SEE YOU NEXT WEEK!

Support Female Workers

To The Editor:

About two weeks ago, an interesting article appeared in the business section of the Star Tribune entitled "Women face harassment in academic science, engineering, medicine." The article's main focus is on sexual harassment, but "demeaning treatment that places women at a disadvantage to men" is a sub-text.

Last week, I was in San Francisco and had the opportunity to talk to a young woman engineer who shared with me her encounters with male co-workers' insensivity to their own language and their treatment of her. She had to go to the HR department for relief. I could hardly believe such sexist persecution still happens even in the land of progressives, the Bay Area.

As one who experienced 15 years in a difficult work environment, I ask that the community support our female workers, whether managers, clerks, nurses, engineers, principals, teachers, but especially our doctor.

Sincerely,
Margaret Kolbek

Inside Wisconsin

Technologies on display at Foxconn event will help drive Wisconsin's economy

TOWN OF MOUNT PLEASANT - Inside the Foxconn Technology Group's prototype production center in Racine County, the show that naturally attracted the most news media attention starred President Trump, House Speaker Paul Ryan and Gov. Scott Walker.

Just outside the hall where Trump, Ryan and Walker and others spoke Thursday afternoon, the real luminaries weren't politicians or even people - but technologies that will place Wisconsin on the leading edge of an American revolution in manufacturing and health care.

The size and scope of Foxconn's emerging presence in Wisconsin was on display for a groundbreaking ceremony that left even those familiar with the project in awe of what's to come as the world's fourth-largest tech company imbeds itself in the state.

The standard descriptor of Foxconn is that of a company that assembles iPhones and television sets. That's true, but it's also a company with technologies to combat cancer; enhance learning for students of all ages; improve manufacturing quality and efficiency; store and retrieve massive amounts of medical data; create sustainable systems; and support legacy business sectors such as retail, aviation and transportation.

A tour of Foxconn's exhibits was like a trip to an Epcot Center of technology, with something to amaze every visitor. Even if the 2,900-acre campus does not grow into "the eighth wonder of the world," as Trump predicted, the company will re-define Wisconsin's economy precisely because so many of its technologies build upon existing strengths. Consider these examples:

- Through its Smart Technologies arm, Foxconn holds the largest market share in interactive technology for schools in the United States. About 25 percent of all U.S. schools license the Smart Software Suite. One of the best familiar products is the "Smart Board," an evolution of the traditional white board.

- About 40 percent of the high-performance computing servers in the world are produced by Foxconn, which is a contract manufacturer for other brands. They form the backbone of the Internet cloud by helping to store, process and transmit massive amounts of data. A leading example is medical data used for imaging and personalized medicine, a field that has grown with the mapping of the human genome.

- Set to be constructed in the Racine complex is the Zap-X radiosurgery system. The Zap-X is a self-contained, self-shielded therapeutic radiation device dedicated to treating brain, head and neck lesions, both benign and malignant.

- Industrial products that rely on artificial intelligence include "Internet of Things" quality control systems, green data center systems to monitor and control wastes, robotics, transportation logistics systems and advanced packaging processes.

Central to the "Wisconsin Valley" complex in Racine County will be production of high-definition screens to be used for purposes that include mobile devices and televisions, which are part of Foxconn's Sharp brand, but also for next-generation uses. Autonomous vehicles, avionics and medical imaging are among the intended uses of Foxconn's 8k/5g platform, which produces pictures so sharp that surgeons can perform critical procedures remotely.

With its massive footprint and forecasts of up to 13,000 employees, Foxconn's Racine park is the center of attention and expected to be "transformative" for the southeast Wisconsin economy, as Racine County Executive Jonathan Delagrave told the groundbreaking day visitors.

Increasingly, however, Foxconn is looking like a company with statewide ambitions. It has purchased a downtown Milwaukee office building to serve as a headquarters and innovation center; announced plans Friday for an innovation center in Green Bay; contracted with about 40 Wisconsin firms for construction and related services; and started building a supply chain that stands to be Wisconsin's largest. So much for the prediction Foxconn would cut and run, leaving Wisconsin in the lurch.

If anything, Foxconn's investment is more secure than ever as trade tensions mount and foreign companies look to relocate production to the United States. Foxconn founder and chief executive officer Terry Gou, who worked in Wisconsin about 40 years ago as part of a Midwest sales route, sounded like a man who prefers to be on the inside of America looking out.

"A strong Wisconsin is good for America, and a strong America is good for the world," Gou told the Racine crowd.

If the technologies on display are used to leverage Wisconsin's historic strengths in manufacturing, health care, education and more, that strength will come.

Still is president of the Wisconsin Technology Council. He is the former associate editor of the Wisconsin State Journal.

The criminal complaint states that on Sunday, May 27, 2018 at approximately 2:29 a.m. Barron County Deputy Fick was dispatched to a bar in Barron County, for a report that the bartender was starting fights and punching people. Deputy Fick was informed by dispatch that the 911 call originated from T.L., who indicated that Springer, had punched him twice in the face.

Deputy Fick arrived on scene and made contact with T. L., J. J. and B. J. They informed him that Springer was out of control and punching people.

T. L. told Deputy Fick that it had been indicated earlier in the bar that it was last call, and the three were trying to purchase a last round of alcohol before the bar closed. T. L. said that Springer became upset and began to yell and swear to everybody to get out, stating that everyone must leave the bar as they were no longer welcome there.

T. L. said that while he was speaking with Springer, she struck him from across the bar with her right hand on an open palm, across his ear. He said she then struck him a second time, at which point they left.

While the three subjects were in the parking lot outside the bar, Springer approached them. She then punched T. L. in the back of the head, before attempting to attack B. J.

T. L. said that the incident in the parking lot had been captured on video on his cell phone. Deputy Fick reviewed the cell phone footage, and observed a female who resembled Springer, and who he recognized from prior police contacts, strike a male subject wearing a gray baseball cap, in the back of the head. J. J. was wearing the same baseball cap.

Deputy Fick then observed Springer "go after" a female with long blond hair, who he eventually identified as B.J.

Deputy Fick entered the bar and eventually made contact with Springer. Deputy Fick asked her what happened, and she stated that the three subjects were being very vulgar, yelling, swearing and getting in her face. T. L. said that they were just hollering back and forth, and that nothing physical occurred. Deputy Fick asked Springer about the incident that occurred in the parking lot, and she also denied that it had become physical.

Deputy Fick advised Springer that there were two subjects in the parking lot claiming to have been struck by her, that the entire incident was captured on the cell phone. Springer responded by asking what he thought she should do, given that they were calling her so many names. Deputy Fick stated that she is not supposed to hit them.

If convicted Springer may be fined not more than $11,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. She is scheduled to appear September 5, 2018.

Nidal A. Abuhamed, 24, of Oakdale, MN., has been charged with possession with intent to deliver methamphetamine, as a party to a crime, and possession of drug paraphernalia;

Shelby C. Duffert-Patraw, 25, of Frederic, has been charged with possession with intent to deliver methamphetamine, repeater and possession of drug paraphernalia, repeater;

Ashley M. Olson, 20, of Vadnais Heights, MN., has been charged with possession with intent to deliver methamphetamine, as a party to a crime and possession of drug paraphernalia;

Brittney L. Purintun, 22, of Cameron, has been charged with maintaining a drug trafficking place, second and subsequent offense, two counts of possession of drug paraphernalia, repeater, and obstructing an officer, repeater.

The criminal complaint states that on Wednesday, June 20, 2018, Officers Reinikainen, Olson, Jondreau and Investigators Krahenbuhl and Thompson with the City of Rice Lake Police Department, were involved in the arrest of six individuals in the parking lot and apartment building on Camelot Lane in the City of Rice Lake. The individuals arrested were identified as Nidal A. Abuhamed, 24, Ashley M. Olson, 20, Brittney L. Purintun, 23, Shelby C. Duffert-Patraw, 26, Paige E. Young, 25, and Brandon C. Purintun, 26.

At approximately 7:55 a.m. Officer Reinikainen was traveling east on Camelot Lane when he noticed a car parked near the road in the parking lot of 101 Camelot Lane with the passenger window down. This drew his attention because it was raining lightly. Officer Reinikainen turned around and passed by the vehicle again. He observed the vehicle had a Minnesota license plate and there appeared to be a female sitting very low in the passenger seat not moving. Officer Reinikainen turned around and passed the vehicle again to get a closer look at the passenger. When he did so, he observed that there was another person in the driver's seat who was also sitting low inside the vehicle and was not moving.

Officer Reinikainen pulled up to the curb alongside the vehicle and parked his squad car. He exited his squad and observed the female in the passenger seat, who was later identified as Ashley M. Olson, look over at him and then say something to the driver, who was later identified as Nidal A. Abuhamed. Officer Reinikainen observed Abuhamed move from what appeared to be a sleeping position with his head against the window.

Officer Reinikainen advised them that he had approached the vehicle as they appeared to have been asleep with the window down while it was raining. He asked them what they were doing in Rice Lake, and Abuhamed said they had dropped off "Shelby" and were waiting for her to come back out. Officer Reinikainen asked if the individual's name was Shelby Duffert-Patraw and Abuhamed said yes. Officer Reinikainen is familiar with Duffert-Patraw based on information known to him that she is a user of methamphetamine. He was advised by Barron County Dispatch that Duffert-Patraw had several outstanding warrants issued for her arrest.

As Officer Reinikainen was standing at the passenger side of the vehicle speaking with Olson and Abuhamed, he observed a small butane torch in the center console of the car and then noticed the top corner of a Ziplock bag visible in Abuhamed's front pants pocket.

Based on Officer Reinikainen's training and experience, he knew it was common for users of methamphetamine to use torch style lighters to vaporize methamphetamine in glass pipes for ingestion of the drug and that methamphetamine is normally transported in plastic bags with zip lock style tops to contain the drug. He asked Abuhamed to take the plastic bag out of his pants pocket and show it to him. He observed Abuhamed push the bag completely down into his pocket as far as his hand could push it. He asked Abuhamed to remove the bag several times and he refused to do so, saying it was change. As he was speaking with Abuhamed Officer Reinikainen saw Olson put her hand down the front of her pants like she was concealing something as well. It was at this point that Officer Olson arrived on scene.

Officer Olson approached the driver's side window of the vehicle and observed Abuhamed's lap was covered in crystalline shards. He informed Officer Reinikainen of his observations, and Officer Reinikainen then ordered Abuhamed out of the car and placed him under arrest.

After Abuhamed was handcuffed he also observed there was a crystal-like substance on the front of the shorts that he was wearing. Officer Reinikainen removed the plastic bag that he had observed in Abuhamed's pocket previously and noted it contained 6.59 grams of a crystal substance, which did not field test positive for methamphetamine. Abuhamed told him the substance was MSM, which is commonly used as a cutting agent that is added to methamphetamine to increase the volume of the product to increase profit.

Officer Reinikainen searched the rest of Abuhamed's person and removed a Ziplock bag from Abuhamed's left pocket that contained 13.02 grams of a crystal substance that field tested positive for methamphetamine. Ashley Olson was later transported to Barron Hospital after complaining about several different medical issues and tested positive for the presence of methamphetamine and cocaine.

After other officers arrived on scene, Officer Reinikainen went to an apartment to speak with Brittney Purintun, who was known to him to also be a methamphetamine user. Officer Reinikainen asked Purintun if Shelby was at her apartment and she said she was alone in the apartment and that she barley knows Shelby. Officer Reinikainen asked which apartment she thought Shelby might be in and she pointed to the upstairs apartment in the northeast corner of the apartment building. He spoke with the tenants in that apartment and they all denied she was in their apartment or even knowing who Shelby was.

Officer Reinikainen spoke to Probation Agent Hagen, as he was aware Purintun is on probation. He requested Agent Hagen to do a home visit at the residence. After he had spoken with Agent Hagen, Purintun stepped out of the sliding patio door to her apartment. He questioned her again about Shelby being in the apartment. He advised her that Agent Hagen was on the way to her apartment to do a home visit. Purintun then went back inside.

While waiting for Agent Hagen to arrive, Purintun again stepped out of the sliding patio door and said she was having Shelby come out. Officer Reinikainen asked Purintun specifically if Shelby was insider her apartment and she said she was having her come out and Purintun didn't want to get in trouble for hiding her.

Officer Reinikainen then entered the apartment to arrest Duffert-Patraw. A few moments later, Officer Olson advised he had located another female hiding in the apartment. She was later identified as Paige E. Young. Young appeared to be under the influence of methamphetamine. Officer Olson then announced he had found another subject hiding in a closet in the bedroom. Officer Reinikainen recognized the subject as Brandon E. Purintun, who also appeared to be under the influence of methamphetamine.

Officer Olson removed an infant child that had been on the couch from the apartment.

Investigator Krahenbuhl and Officer Reinikainen along with Officer Jondreau, conducted a search of Purintun's apartment and the vehicle she drives. Located in the glove box of the car was a container that was designed to look like a book. Inside the false book Investigator Krahenbuhl located a working digital scale with a plant residue and crystal residue that field tested positive for methamphetamine, a large Ziplock bag with residue that field tested positive for methamphetamine and 13 unused gem bags.

They next searched the apartment. Inside the living room, just inside the sliding door on a shelf, Investigator Krahenbuhl located a large gem bag that contained 3.15 grams of an unknown crystal substance and a smaller gem bag that contained .26 grams of a crystal substance that field tested positive for methamphetamine. In a gold colored purse, which contained Purintun's identification, was a green silicone container that contained marijuana wax that field tested positive for THC.

If convicted Nidal Abuhamed may be fined not more than $100,500, or imprisoned for not more than

DNR: All hands are on deck this Fourth-of-July weekend to stop aquatic invasive species in Wisconsin

Thousands of Wisconsinites and visitors will take to the water this Fourth-of-July for the state's busiest boating holiday. During the tenth annual Landing Blitz, June 29-July 4, many boaters will be greeted at landings and access points by Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources staff, volunteers and regional Aquatic Invasive Species partners sharing a simple but powerful message: YOU can protect lakes and rivers from aquatic invasive species.

The Landing Blitz is a statewide effort to remind boaters and users of all other watercraft that they can take actions to stop the spread of aquatic invasive species, which pose great risks to the health of our lakes and fisheries.

"Wisconsin is blessed with an abundance of water resources for outdoor sports and recreation. It's one of the top reasons Wisconsin is the premier travel destination for fun in the Midwest," said Stephanie Klett, Secretary of the Wisconsin Department of Tourism. "We appreciate the commitment of our visitors and residents to help protect our lakes, rivers and streams from aquatic invasive species and preserve our water resources for generations to come."

Volunteers, AIS partners and DNR boat inspectors will be on hand at landings around the state to demonstrate the prevention steps and answer questions about invasive species. Their efforts will build on the success of last year's campaign, when volunteers inspected over 14,000 boats and spoke with over 32,000 people.

"One of the most exciting things about this campaign is the strong volunteer effort. Every year hundreds of concerned citizens participate as volunteers to help us raise awareness and empower boaters," says Bob Wakeman, Statewide AIS Coordinator.

For those who use social media, they can help spread the word about the importance of aquatic invasive species prevention by posting photos and messages using #CleanBoatsClean-

Waters.

Invasive plants and animals, like Eurasian water-milfoil, spiny water fleas and zebra mussels, can spread easily by hitching a ride on boats and other equipment, including trailers, anchors, live wells, buckets and bilges. Because many invasive species can also be hidden in mud, it's vital to clean off anchors. But boaters can also easily prevent this by taking the following simple steps before they leave a boat landing:

- Inspect your boat, trailer and equipment for attached aquatic plants or animals
- Remove all attached plants or animals
- Drain all water from boats, motors, live wells and other equipment

- Never move live fish away from a waterbody
- Dispose of unwanted bait in the trash
- Buy minnows from a Wisconsin bait dealer
- Only use leftover minnows when either 1) fishing with them on the same body of water or 2) on other waters if no lake/river water or other fish have been added to the container.

Following these steps also helps boaters comply with Wisconsin state law, which prohibits the transport of aquatic invasive species.

To learn more about invasive species and their impacts to Wisconsin's waters and economy, visit dnr.wi.gov and search "Invasive Species."

Shultz Lake 2018

Hello friends,
This week there is a ton to write about so here goes. First and most important, my very good friends Peter and Elizabeth Hagedorn have sold Chimo Lodge and Outposts (www.chimolodgeandoutposts.com). For the last 60-days I have received dozens of phone calls and emails asking me if the Hagedorns are okay, and if the new owner is cool.

The Hagedorns are in excellent health and after having walked this earth for over 165-years between the two of them, they decided to sell when an offer was made.

Second, Chris LeBlanc of Red Lake, Ontario, and a group of people have purchased all of Chimo, and from what I see this will be an excellent fit with Superior Airways which they already owned. I spent about 6-hours around Chris and myself as well as everyone in our gang honestly feels that he is doing everything that he can do to be an excellent camp owner and host.

Saturday, June 16th
High 74, low 48

We fly by float plane to Shultz Lake on a Saturday and are the only people on the entire body of water until we leave the next Saturday.

There are 8 of us, my brother Tom is up from Denham Springs, Louisiana with his 8-year old grandson Landon Woodruff. Tom's neighbor and good friend of this group Bob "Bobco" Pearson made the 1700-mile drive as well. Bobco shares a deer camp with Tom which I go to, and we love giving each other a hard time.

My brother Mike and our families long time friend Gary Gray, as well as Dick Schuster and his son Trent (brother in law and nephew) round out our gang.

Bottom line, we fish hard, eat well and stay up late!

Today is day one and there are some significant factors, there is a minnow hatch which has emerald shiners hanging out by our dock by the hundreds and they are awesome bait if you can catch them.

Another big deal is that the water is just about as low as I have ever seen it and that makes boat travel difficult at times.

To start the day Trent and I had agreed to take a boat through a pretty dry creek to another lake as the boat that should be on the lake that we were headed to was missing. This job was extremely physical at times as we literally had to grunt, groan, and carry the boat and motor on very slippery rocks.

When we got to our destination we motored to our portage trail and picked up Dick Schuster and an incredible day of walleye fishing began with at least 40-walleye between 19 and 25.5 inches being caught.

Dick kicked my butt on most and biggest fish and loved verbally abusing me, bottom line we laughed a lot.

Sunday, June 17th
High 76, low 51

Fathers Day and no Selina, this was a tough pill to swallow for me. Selina was chosen for Badger Girls State and would spend six days at UW Oshkosh instead, I am proud of her.

Today I am on the same lake, yesterday we found the missing boat and so today I would fish with Bobco, and Mike and Gary would fish in the other boat after Bobco and I rescued it.

Bobco and I had a problem and that was that the rescue motor did not want to idle so we improvised which meant we drifted and used night crawler harnesses. This tactic was a blast, and we were catching lots of 22 to 26-inch walleye. Bobco caught the 26, which would lead until day six.

When Mike and Gary motored up to us Gary had caught a 42- inch northern pike with a Little Cleo. I caught 38.75 and most years that would be a winner but not today.

Monday, June 18th
High 79, low 54

My brother Bob would have been the same age as me for two weeks as of today. Bob passed away last October, rest in peace brother! Today I fished with brother Tom and great nephew Landon. This is Landon's first Canadian adventure and to tell the truth on this day he would have rather been at the dock catching minnows, which he sells to us at a rate of a buck a dozen.

Gary Greg of Poynette with a beautiful 42-inch Northern Pike, which he released.

Through luck and good fishing Landon landed a 22-inch walleye when all he was doing was dragging a lead head jig as we drifted. I told him to shoot for catching five and a bit later he had caught five beautiful walleye. At days end Landon had caught 17 in this very simple manner and then we headed back to the trail head, the boat on the other end and then camp.

Tonight back at camp Trent cooked baked walleye, marinated in Italian seasoning, we stayed up very late and we were always laughing.

Hats off to the Hagedorn's and good luck to the LeBlanc's!

Barronett News By Judy Pieper

Happy Independence Day! I'm so glad that Shell Lake has its big celebration on July 3rd and Cumberland on the 4th, so we can watch fireworks both days. Whatever you choose to do, I hope you have a very happy and safe 4th of July.

I have an announcement to make. I am officially very, very old. I celebrated three quarters of a century of life here on earth on June 28th. I'll tell you what, it has gone by fast and if I would have realized 75 years ago that I would last this long I would have taken much better care of myself. So, to all you young whippersnappers, don't come whining to me about your trials and tribulations. If I can live through it, so can you. Actually, I better not be the only one doing the whining-I've had a pretty good life so far.

In our family the traditional birthday breakfast is waffles, ice cream and hot syrup, and this year was no exception. Lynn Thon, along with her adorable little grandson, Kane, invited Duane, Sue Meier, Anita and Miriah Lehmann and me to her house for breakfast. The waffles were from scratch, and they were delicious. It was the perfect way to start the day. And, I have to say, the entire day was pretty great.

Speaking of great, Laura Schneider and Tru Lehmann had a truly great visit with Laura's son Adam Holmes, in Chicago a couple weekends ago. They got up way too early in the morning to catch an early flight out of the Twin Cities on Friday, June 22nd. When they landed at O'Hare, Adam was waiting to welcome them to the windy city. They took the el to their hotel where they got all settled in and then started their tour of Chicago. It was rainy and a little cold, so they did indoor things the first day. Adam took them to the aquarium and then to a museum to see dinosaurs. Tru was hoping to go for a swim in Lake Michigan, but it was much too cold for that. They finished off the first day by enjoying a delicious Chicago pizza.

On Saturday they got up bright and early and went to

Wizards Academy comes to UW-Barron County

Harry Potter fans entering grades 4-9 are invited to a three-day Wizarding Academy at the University of Wisconsin-Barron County (UW-BC). Apprenticing wizards will be sorted into Houses, play muggle Quidditch, test their Harry Potter knowledge with trivia and quizzes, receive OWL post from favorite Harry Potter characters, and compete for the House Cup when they earn points by completing tasks that will test their wits, creativity, teamwork and skill.

The Academy Headmaster is Troy Kozma, Ph.D., Professor of Philosophy at UW-Barron County in cooperation with several faculty, staff and students at the campus.

Wizarding Academy will the farmers' market and then to the Lincoln Zoo. Adam wanted to take them to the top of Willis Tower, but the wait was two to three hours to get in, so they decided to go to Navy pier instead. On Sunday morning there wasn't such a long wait for Willis Tower, so they took the tour and went all the way up to the top, on a clear day, a person can see up to fifty miles away. Laura and Tru both walked out on the glass platform so they could look at the view and Laura said that they were both a little nervous about it, but were glad they did it.

That afternoon they rode the el back to O'Hare and flew back to the Twin Cities. They decided that the three day visit was just about perfect, but they are making a list of the things they want to see the next time they fly down to visit with Adam.

Justin Jobe and his crew have been extremely busy the last couple weeks putting new shingles on the roof and steeple of Barronett Lutheran Church. You might have noticed that the roof was way past due for an upgrade, and these guys are making short work of it. We all appreciate how they have stuck with it even in the hot weather we have had. It's looking so much better.

Sue Meier, Duane and I went to Bistro 63 on Thursday evening to try their wood fire pizza. Let me tell you, it was delicious. First time Duane or I had tried it, and it certainly won't be the last. The only bad thing is that I left my phone at home and while we were at the Bistro I missed three calls and a text from Wrigley Marsh. I called him when we got home and he sang "happy birthday" to me. Aren't grandchildren just the best things that ever happen to anyone? I think so.

Bill and Sally Evans sent a funny birthday card. There's a picture of a grumpy old lady on the outside, and she says, "you....29? That's like what you get when you cross a crocodile with a Shetland pony..." and on the inside it says, "a crock-o-shet." Yep, that's about right.

I guess that's about all I know from Barronett this week. Hope you had a great time celebrating our independence. See you next time.

Life on the Family Farm Under an Open Heaven

By: Tom Heck

Billy Graham – A Man Who Changed My Life

A short while ago, the news came out that evangelist Billy Graham had died. Although he was 99 years old, when I heard of his passing, I had to stop and do a lot of remembering. I, along with a lot of other Americans, and people from around the world owe a lot to this man. It certainly can be said that Billy Graham impacted the world for God.

Billy had a big impact on my life; I know I wouldn't be alive today if it wasn't for him. That is saying a lot, but it's the truth. You see, in the home I was raised in, I was beaten and abused something terrible. I grew up with a very twisted, wicked mind set. As I grew up, I was a very sinful person. I hated the sinful life I was living, but I was powerless to change. I was becoming more and more like the people who abused me so.

Yes, we as a family were real religious; we went to church every week. But going to a dead, religious church every week doesn't change a person at all. The preacher would stand up in the pulpit and say to all present, "We are all so blessed, we're all going to Heaven when we die because we've all been infant water baptized. All the people out there in the world are all going to Hell when they die though." I sat there quietly with my head held down thinking, "They may all be going to Heaven in this church when they die, but I know beyond the shadow of a doubt, that I'm going to Hell when I die." Today, I so thank the Lord for the Holy Spirit who speaks the truth to sinners, such as I was, who are on the road to Hell.

Because of the terrible abuse in my home, as a teenager, I started looking for a way out. It was so bad, and I was so desperate, that I started to think about suicide every day. And I most certainly would have committed suicide if it wouldn't have been for one person – Billy Graham.

Billy was always faithful to preach the true Word of God. He held many crusades across the nation and around the world. After the crusades, he would broadcast some of them on national TV late in the evenings. We would normally get done with our evening chores about the time he would come on TV. My mom would always turn the TV on for them.

One of his sermons radically affected my life. His sermon text was from Rev. 20:11-15, "And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." He preached on this and it absolutely terrified me. From that day on, and for years to come, every day when I would think of suicide, I would remember that text and sermon. I knew beyond the shadow of a doubt that if I ended my life, I would end up in the lake of fire for eternity. I knew what I was going through at home wasn't as bad as the lake of fire.

Things at home were so bad however, and I was becoming more wicked and life seemed absolutely hopeless that one day shortly after my 18th birthday I nearly committed suicide. If it wasn't for God's mercy and good medical doctors, I most certainly would have died. How I so thank God for His great mercy and grace.

Life went on, totally hopeless and without meaning or purpose. And then, two years later, I got a letter in the mail from the Billy Graham ministry advertising a book they were selling called Meeting God At Every Turn written by Catherine Marshall. In the book Catherine told of a personal loving God who was alive and real, who would forgive a person of all of their sins, and guide them through their lives and use them for His glory. I had never heard of a God like this before in my life. And I most certainly had never seen this in my home or church. I had to check this out, it sounded way too good to be true, but for a person on the verge of suicide, what did I have to lose?

So I ordered the book and after several weeks it arrived in the mail. Through that book, I came to see and know the true and living God! After reading that book, I got down on my knees with tears running down my face and confessed my sins to God and repented of them. Then I asked Jesus to come into my heart and be my total Lord and Saviour. I told Him my life was worthless, but I was giving it totally to Him and if He could use it at all for His glory, He could. Back then I couldn't see or dream how He could possibly use my life at all, but I gave it totally to Him. When I got off my knees that day, for the first time in my life I knew love, I knew forgiveness of all of my terrible sins and I had a reason for living. Life was finally worth living, and I never ever thought about suicide again. I have followed my precious Lord and Saviour all these years now, and the longer I follow Him, the more I love Him, and the sweeter it is. And someday I will not step over into the lake of fire, but I will cross that final shore and step over into Heaven and see Jesus face to face and spend eternity with Him!

Billy Graham, my friend, is now gone, but how I thank God for him, and I know I most certainly will see him too on the other side.

2018 Heritage Days at Pioneer Village Museum

The Barron County Historical Society is celebrating Heritage Days weekend at Pioneer Village Museum 1 1/2 miles west of Cameron on CTY HWY W July 7th & 8th, from 10 am to 5 pm both days. For anyone who has never visited the museum, or has not been there for several years, they are in for a real treat.

Heritage Days is the biggest annual event of the year. The whole complex has grown to close to 40 buildings since the Joliet School was first moved there in 1964. Many of the volunteers dress in period costume, sharing their knowledge of the displays, and demonstrating a variety of pioneer skills and crafts. The Pioneer Kitchen and Saloon will be open both days. Faith Lutheran Church from Cameron is holding their Sunday morning service at 9am in Ebenezer Church.

Live music in the Pavilion will feature the following: Saturday - Steve Szydel at 11am, Charlie Uhlein and John Pisa at 1pm, and the String Smiths at 3pm. Sunday - Chris Kroeze at 11am, the String Smiths at 1pm, and the Gospel Notes at 3pm.

On Saturday at 2pm, a

Grand Opening will take place at the Pioneer Cabin. The Children's Pioneer Cabin was built in the early 1920s as a garage on Long Lake, and was most recently owned by Doug and Sue Raether. Members of the Maintenance Crew dis-assembled it, just like taking apart a cabin of Lincoln Logs. The logs were moved to the Museum, where it was reconstructed. The cabin will serve as a place for children's activities.

Some demonstrations that visitors may see include: an operating fanning mill, blacksmithing, weaving on looms, butter churning, washing clothes with a washboard, knitting, tating, candle dipping, and many others. There are photo opportunities in three "Face-in-the-Hole" boards. A variety of activities for children include scavenger hunts, stilts, lawn Jenga, Jax, and marbles.

In the vegetable garden visitors will learn about this year's theme: War Gardens of WWI. During WWI, many people planted food everywhere they could find a place. Visitors will see edible items in many places on the grounds, and will have a chance to taste and sniff a variety of herbs. There will be Master Gardener Volunteers on hand to talk about gardening and answer garden questions, and even have a few plants for sale.

Step into the Ebner Box Factory and watch boxes being made. Read about Stout's Lodge on the Island of Happy Days and take yourself back in time with the Calista Too, the pleasure launch previously owned by Frank Stout. See the restored tractors and the pedal car collection. Ring the bell from the old canning factory in Barron. Browse through some of this year's 4th grade projects in the school. See the progress on the Soo Line Caboose, visit the new Norwegian Room, and the dairy farming display. Visitors can also browse through local family histories in the Library, learn about WPA models used in rural schools, see vintage wedding dresses or reminisce about the 1960s in Jerome Hall.

Many volunteers will also be on hand on Friday, July 6th, from 1 - 5pm, to demonstrate skills such as blacksmithing. Visitors will also be able to make butter, wash clothes by hand, and talk with volunteers about the various aspects of northern Wisconsin history on Friday as well.

Admission to the Museum is $10.00 for adults, $5.00 for children 5-12 with those under 5 admitted free. Season passes are $20 for a single, or $60 for a family pass. The Museum is located 1 1/2 miles west of Cameron on Cty Hy W (1866 13/12 -14th Ave, Cameron).

This week Americans celebrate a special day, the signing of the Declaration of Independence which came on July 4, 1776. The document described the unfairness of rules by the king and parliament of England, and stressed that there was no representative to speak on behalf of the American colonies. The choice of the signers was separation from England, so the colonies could rule themselves.

The opening lines of the Declaration of Independence describe a vision, rooted in scripture, where basic human rights are recognized: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness."

The king of England sought to suppress the rebellion, but lost to the determined Americans. Then a different work began, forming a new government with a Constitution, followed by the original ten amendments, called the Bill of Rights. The ideas of independence, freedom and self-determination have become ingrained into our culture.

Freedom in scripture is sometimes described in a literal sense, as opposed to slavery, but more often as freedom from fear and superstitions, where people walk with God and follow His commandments, and know His love and compassion for people. This can bring amazing confidence and courage to live life to its best, and bring out the best in others.

St. Peter wrote: Live like free people. But don't use your freedom to cover up evil. Live like people who serve God. Show proper respect to everyone. Love the community of believers. Have respect for God. Honor the king. (1 Peter 2:16-17 NLRV)

St. Paul also tells us: "...urge you, beloved, to admonish the idlers, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with all of them. See that none of you repays evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to all. Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. (1 Thessalonians 5:14-18)

Enjoy your freedom as Americans, and shine as children of God.

NOTICE OF OPEN BOOK AND BOARD OF REVIEW TOWN OF MCKINLEY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Open Book for the Town of McKinley will be held at the McKinley Town Hall, 2527 15th Street, Cumberland, Wisconsin on Tuesday, July 24, 2017, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. Board of Review will be held on Tuesday, July 31, 2018, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. at the McKinley Town Hall, 2527 15th Street, Cumberland, Wisconsin.

Please be advised of the following requirements to appear before the board of review and procedural requirements if appearing before the board:

- *No person will be allowed to appear before the board of review, to testify to the board by telephone, or to contest the amount of any assessment of real or personal property if the person has refused a reasonable written request by certified mail of the assessor to enter onto property to conduct an exterior view of such property being assessed.

- After the first meeting of the board of review and before the board's final adjournment, no person who is scheduled to appear before the board of review may contact or provide information to a member of the board about the person's objection, except at a session of the board. Open book shall occur no less than 7 days prior to the board of review.

- The board of review may not hear an objection to the amount or valuation of property unless, at least 48 hours before the board's first scheduled meeting, the objector provides to the board's clerk written or oral notice of an intent to file an objection, except that upon a showing of good cause and the submission of a written objection, the board shall waive that requirement during the first 2 hours of the board's first scheduled meeting, and the board may waive that requirement up to the end of the 5th day of the session or up to the end of the final day of the session if the session is less than 5 days with proof of extraordinary circumstances for failure to meet the 48-hour notice requirement and failure to appear before the board of review during the first 2 hours of the first scheduled meeting.

- Objections to the amount or valuation of property shall first be made in writing and filed with the clerk of the board of review within the first 2 hours of the board's first scheduled meeting, except that, upon evidence of extraordinary circumstances, the board may waive that requirement up to the end of the 5th day of the session or up to the end of the final day of the session if the session is less than 5 days. The board may require objections to the amount or valuation of property to be submitted on forms approved by the Department of Revenue, and the board shall require that any forms include stated valuations of the property in question. Persons who own land and improvements to that land may object to the aggregate valuation of that land and improvements to that land, but no person who owns land and improvements to that land may object only to the valuation of that land or only to the valuation of improvements to that land. No person may be allowed in any action or proceedings to question the amount or valuation of property unless the written objection has been filed and that person in good faith presented evidence to the board in support of the objections and made full disclosure before the board, under oath, of all of that person's property liable to assessment in the district and the value of that property. The requirement that objections be in writing may be waived by express action of the board.

- When appearing before the board of review, the objecting person shall specify in writing the person's estimate of the value of the land and of the improvements that are the subject of the person's objection and specify the information that the person used to arrive at that estimate.

- No person may appear before the board of review, testify to the board by telephone, or object to a valuation if that valuation was made by the assessor or the objector using the income method of valuation, unless no later than 7 days before the first meeting of the board of review the person supplies the assessor with all the information about income and expenses, as specified in the assessor's manual under s. 73.03 (2a), Wis. stats., that the assessor requests. The Town of McKinley has an ordinance for the confidentiality of information about income and expenses that is provided to the assessor under this paragraph that provides exceptions for persons using information in the discharge of duties imposed by law or the duties of their officer or by order of a court. The information that is provided under this paragraph, unless a court determines before the first meeting of the board of review that it is inaccurate, is not subject to the right of inspection and copying under s. 19.35 (1), Wis. Stats.

- The board shall hear upon oath, by telephone, all ill or disabled persons who present to the board a letter from a physician, surgeon, or osteopath that confirms their illness or disability. No other persons may testify by telephone unless the Board, in its discretion, has determined to grant a property owner's or their representative's request to testify under oath by telephone or written statement.

- No person may appear before the board of review, testify to the board by telephone, or contest the amount of any assessment unless, at least 48 hours before the first meeting of the board, or at least 48 hours before the objection is heard if the objection is allowed under s. 70.47 (3) (a), Wis. stats., that person provides to the clerk of the board of review notice as to whether the person will ask for the removal of a member of the board of review and, if so, which member, and provides a reasonable estimate of the length of time the hearing will take.

Notice is hereby given this 4th day of July 2018.

Northwoods Notebook:

We're playing terrible golf but meeting nice folks

By Larry Werner

One day last winter, while having dinner with the Epple brothers, Ann and I agreed to play in the Cumberland Golf Club couples league this summer. I knew John and Denny were good golfers, but they insisted the Wednesday league for golfing pairs is "low key" and not overly competitive.

Then we attended the organizational meeting for the league and were given rules that made it clear this isn't a loosey-goosey weekly romp on our local fairways. And at that meeting, some of the participants wanted to know if they could play the back nine, which I describe as a forest with narrow openings between the trees through which you're expected to hit the ball.

Tony Diehl, the former manager of the golf course, told me once he had recommended cutting down something like a thousand trees to make holes 10-18 more fair. I think he got about half his wish, and having played the back nine once, I figured cutting 2,000 trees would be better and vowed to keep my lousy game on the more open 1-9.

And some participants in this "low-key" league want to play in the trees!

We had played in a couples league several years ago at a course in the Twin Cities. It was truly low key. One week you got points for hitting water hazards, and there were no standings. There are standings in the Cumberland league, and I'm proud to inform you Ann and I are lodged firmly in last place.

But here's the good news: The folks we've played with, the people who have watched patiently as we've smacked balls off trees and into ponds – or missed the ball altogether – have been, like everyone else we've met in our adopted town, extremely gracious. They've even been willing to have dinner with us after enduring nine holes with a couple who really should be kept off the course for the safety of others.

Gary and Ann Hendricks, for example, kept telling us the league is about meeting people and having fun, not scoring well (as they made par after par, putt after putt on their way to first place in the standings).

At one point, Gary pointed out that because of my age, I'm allowed to play the "forward tees." You know what the other name for those tees is, and, enlightened as I like to think I am, I couldn't get myself to tee off from what the unenlightened call the "ladies tees." The reason, actually, isn't because I'm a macho guy, but because if I were hitting from the same tees as Ann, it would be obvious she can hit the ball further than I can.

Golf is a ridiculously difficult game. In what other sport is it virtually impossible to score for a round what the card says you should (par)? If you're "not playing up to par" in life, you're falling short, and virtually everyone does in golf. And then they put these ponds, sand traps and trees all over the course so even if you hit a nice shot, you can end up "wet," or "on the beach" or in the woods with the snakes, ticks and poison ivy.

Despite our poor play, however, I have admitted to the Epple brothers that it has been fun, and we have met nice folks. And after our weekly mystery tour of this beautiful golf course, we get to have pleasant conversation with new friends over delicious food at The Turn restaurant.

Heck, I even chipped in once. And last week, while playing with Amy and Dave Anderson, I even got a par.

Larry Werner's email is llwerner47@gmail.com.

July 4th Celebration...

The festivities at Tourist Park begin at 11:00 a.m. with Kids games, and then at 11:30 a.m., registration for the volleyball and horseshoe tournaments starts.

Beer and food will be available from noon until midnight, and live music begins at 8:00 p.m. and goes until midnight with the featured band In the Fields. As always the fantastic fireworks start at dusk. So bring your family and friends and come join the party!

I have a few more pieces of Independence Day trivia for you (simply because I cannot help myself):

Though we celebrate July 4th as "Independence Day" the Second Continental Congress actually passed the final draft of the resolution and declared independence on July 2nd, just as the British fleet and army sailed into New York Harbor. It took two days for a "fair copy" of the Declaration to be made and on July 4th the Declaration was read to the congress and officially adopted. The document was then made into "broadside" and the Pennsylvania Evening Post printed the first newspaper edition on July 6th.

The first public celebration of independence was on July 8, 1776 as the Liberty Bell sounded from the tower of Independence Hall, summoning the citizens to gather for the first public reading of the Declaration by Colonel John Nixon.

Other 4th of July facts:
• Three Presidents have died on July 4th, Thomas Jef-erson, John Adams (1826) and James Monroe (1831).

• The first 4th of July celebration at the White House was hosted by Declaration author and our third President, Thomas Jefferson, in 1804 and the first celebration west of the Mississippi was held in 1805 at Independence Creek by the explorers Lewis and Clark.

• The corner stone of the Washington Monument was laid by President Zachary Taylor on July 4, 1850. (Taylor became ill with cholera that night and died five days later).

So fly your flags, light off some fireworks and join in the "Great Anniversary Festival...from one end of this continent to the other"

Have a safe and happy 4th of July!
