Golden 'Baga'
Hunt 2022

Clue #1

August is here and be careful what you read, absorb all you can if you want to find the swede.

Some things have changed but still remain the same, misdirection and trickery will be the fuel of the game.
A coalition of energy that can be known as friends,
Schell and Shel know something upstairs, but that's not where it ends.

REMEMBER!

The 'Baga medallion will only be found on PUBLIC land. It is NOT at the Library!
Again, we ask each of the 'Baga hunters to respect private property and confine your hunt to public areas. Good Luck.

COVID-19 Cases on the Rise

Cases of COVID-19 are on the rise again. It is important to remember to continue to take steps to help slow the spread. Slowing the spread of COVID-19 protects our family and friends and ensures our hospitals have the ability to help everyone who needs it.

"One of the most important things you can do is stay home when you are sick," said Laura Sauve, Public Health Program Manager. If you have any symptoms of COVID-19 you should stay home and get tested. The at-home tests may not turn positive for a couple of days after symptoms start. If the test turns positive, stay home and keep away from others for at least five days. If you have no fever and feel better after five days, you can leave your home, but remember to wear a mask around other people for five more days."

If you are up to date on your COVID-19 vaccines and boosters and come into close contact with someone who has COVID-19, you should wear a mask for ten days, watch for symptoms, and test on day five. If at any time you develop symptoms, stay away from others and get tested. If you are not up to date on your COVID-19 vaccines and come into close contact with someone who tested positive for COVID-19, you should stay home for five days. If no symptoms have developed, you can leave your home if you wear a well-fitting mask around others for five more days. It is recommended that you test on day five. If you can't quarantine, you must wear a mask for ten days.

"It's also very important if you are exposed to or test positive for COVID-19 that you stay away from people who may be at higher risk of developing severe COVID for a full ten days," continued Sauve. "Help protect older people and those with other health conditions from COVID-19 and keep your distance until it is safe."

Medications for COVID-19 are now available through your doctor, pharmacies, and clinics. If you have COVID-19 symptoms and test positive, do not wait to get treated. You must take oral COVID-19 medication within five days of your first COVID-19 symptoms. If you want the medication and do not have insurance, call public health at 715-537-5691, extension 6442 and they will help you.

Vaccination continues to be the best way to protect yourself from hospitalization and death. Free COVID vaccines and booster doses are available at Public Health on Thursdays. Walk-ins are welcome from 8:30-11:00 am and 1:00 to 4:00 pm, other times by appointment. Public Health is located in the Barron County Government Center, 335 E. Monroe Avenue, in Barron.

Wisconsin's Fall Primary election August 9, ensure you have an ID to vote

Wisconsin Department of Transportation Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) reminds voters to check and be sure that they have the proper identification needed to vote in the state primary election (August 9).

Wisconsin driver licenses or IDs are the most common form of identification used for voting purposes. A federally compliant REAL ID card is not required to show at the polls. The Wisconsin Elections Commission notes other forms of identification are valid for voting, such as military or student ID cards. To see if a card meets the requirements, visit the Wisconsin Elections Commission website.

Voters looking to get their first Wisconsin ID can turn to DMV for help. To obtain an official ID card, there are documentation requirements such as a birth certificate. If all documentation is not readily available, the ID Petition Process (IDPP) may be used to obtain a receipt valid for voting while the remaining documents or verifications are obtained.

DMV offers this service and ID cards for voting purposes free of charge. DMV's toll-free Voter ID hotline at (844) 588-1069 is available for questions on obtaining an ID to vote.

DMV's website has a locator to help find the nearest DMV and check wait times (wisconsindmv.gov/centers).

New Officers Sworn In!

Felony charges filed after wild high-speed pursuit in Burnett County

On June 26, 2022, just shortly after 6:00 pm, Burnett County Sheriff Deputies observed Brian Bearheart, of Webster, exiting a vehicle and entering a residence at an apartment complex on Angeline Avenue in Webster. Deputies knew that Bearheart was not supposed to be on the premises of that apartment complex and waited in the vicinity. A short time later, a suspect vehicle was seen leaving the premises, and Bearheart was seen inside the vehicle in the front passenger seat.

According to a criminal complaint, the vehicle took off at a high rate of speed, ty at speeds up to 70 mph in a 35 mph zone. The vehicle then failed to stop at a stop sign, and proceeded east on Birch Haven Road before turning and traveling north on County Road X. The criminal complaint states that the pursuit reached speeds of 100 mph and that several times the suspect vehicle was traveling in the wrong lane and nearly struck another vehicle head-on at one point.

At one point during the pursuit, a bottle of vodka was thrown from the suspect vehicle toward a deputy's squad car and smashed in the roadway. According to the criminal complaint, the pursuit lasted 12 miles. Sheldon Thayer of Danbury was identified as the driver of the vehicle and Bearheart was confirmed as the front passenger. Located in the backseat was a juvenile, intoxicated and wearing a backpack that contained two bottles of vodka. Deputies ordered Bearheart to exit the vehicle, however, when the door opened, Bearheart fell from the vehicle and did not move. Thayer shouted that Bearheart was "drunk." Deputies instructed Thayer to open the driver's door and exit the vehicle, but Thayer was unable to open the door.

Authorities set up spike strips, hoping to stop the vehicle, the vehicle did strike the strips, however, continued fleeing. A short time later, deputies observed the front and rear tires of the vehicle deflating. Following this, the suspect vehicle lost control and entered a ditch.

Bob Chubb

Bob Chubb: 2022 Cumberland Athletic Hall of Fame Inductee

Joining the inductees at the September 17, 2022 Athletic Hall of Fame Banquet, will be 1961 graduate, Bob Chubb.

Chubb was a three-sport letter winner in high school, participating in football, basketball and baseball. He was a sophomore on the 1958 Conference Champion Football Team and a junior on the 1960 HON Champion Baseball team. He served as a Captain in both football and basketball.

"I owe a lot to two great coaches I had in high school. Elmer Beran was a great instructor, while Jim Dimick was very inspirational. Both ended up with Hall of Fame careers," Chubb said of the two men.

In football, he was a speedy running back as well as a ball hawking defensive back. After winning the Conference in 1958 and finishing 4 and 4 as a junior, the Beavers went 7 and 1 his senior year, losing only to Bloomer in a close game. "We had 16 seniors and a very good team," Chubb added.

He had numerous big plays that fall, scoring eight touchdowns, many which displayed his above average speed. In one Advocate article, a 26-7 victory over Barron, the paper said, "Chubb had a sensational fifty-five yard run in which he eluded Barron tacklers as he zig-zagged" his way downfield."

He was a starting guard for Elmer Beran and the Beavers his last three years. "Elmer grabbed me after my freshman year and told me to work on my ball handling, dribbling and passing. We didn't have a basket at home, but I practiced all summer and won a starting position. I worked on passing by hitting the poles in our barn. After my sophomore year, Coach Beran told me to work on dribbling left-handed. Again, that's all I did that summer and it helped me be a better player," Chubb said.

He would turn into a solid double-digit scorer by his senior season, with a high game of 27. He was also a tough defender as the Advocate said of him following a win against Hayward, "Bob Chubb's hustling defensive play forced Hayward into many offensive mistakes and on five occasions, Chubb came up with the ball following mad scrambles involving both teams."

Bob would go on to college at River Falls, playing football and basketball for one year each. He also played some basketball at Golden Valley Lutheran in Minnesota. His love for sports kept him busy during this time and later in life as he played men's hockey for 22 years, skied in 21 Birkenbeiners, and ran over 20,000 miles in over 300 races of various lengths, including marathons.

As well as a good athlete, Bob Chubb was an outstanding coach during his years in the Frederic School District and here in Cumberland in retirement, where he has served for many years as a track coach. He has been part of numerous Conference Championship and State teams. "Somewhere in my early years, I found my dream to become a coach and teacher," he said.

It is all amazing, when you consider he was told as a young boy he may never walk again. "As a toddler, I had polio in my legs. After being told I may never walk, my mother told the doctors, "I would walk and would not limp." She worked with me and by five I was walking. My mother continued the physical strengthening of my lower body with daily skating, skiing, running, and biking," Chubb added of his recovery.

When not playing sports in high school, Bob sang in the high school choir and played musical instruments. In college, he was part of the Golden Valley Lutheran Choir that sang at the White House. In 1959, he designed the beaver logo that still appears on the school's letter jackets. All part of his amazing career in the "Island City."

He even met his wife Fran, in part through athletics. "I was a freshman going on a bus to our first varsity football game, when our chaperone, Mr. Lindemann, made a girl sit in the seat with me. The rest is history," concluded Chubb.

Bob Chubb has had an amazing career in the city for over 75 years. On September 17, we get to honor him and hear more of his amazing story.

Girls Golf Opens Practice Next Monday

The Girl's Golf Team will open practice for their 2022 season next Monday, under Head Coach Tom Hullander. The team opens up their regular season that Friday, August 12, with a multi-school meet at 9:00 am at Barron's Rolling Oaks. Hayward in the defending HON Champion.

Football Team Opens Practice for 2022 Season

The Cumberland Beavers held their first practices this week for the upcoming high school football season. The Beavers had a fine 2021 regular season before dropping a disappointing 20-14 home contest to Boyceville in the first round of last year's WIAA Playoffs.

Among those returning to this year's squad are All-Conference performers Edward Chafer and Bryce Colburn as well as several other starters including David Olson, Vaughn Johnson, Jax Effertz, Monty Peterson, Lucas Simon, Jack Chafer, Garrett Craine, Dylan Capra, and Ryker Allen. This gives Coach Corey Berghammer a strong group from which to build around this fall.

"I think the offensive line might be a strength as we have numerous players coming back. Lucas Simon, Garrett Craine, Dylan Capra, Jack Chafer, Bryce Colburn, and Ben Cunningham will return with some size and experience," said Coach Berghammer. Olson, meanwhile, looks to be the front runner for the quarterback position where he performed extremely well in his lone start last August. Chafer returns following a big junior year where he ended up as the HON's third leading receiver and fourth leading rusher. He is primed for a huge senior season as one of the Conferences top all-around players.

"We expect our kids to compete each play and every game."

"We are going to have some young men in much different roles than they have been in the past, but our football program has set the bar high and we expect the young men we put on the field will continue to meet these expectations," said Coach Berghammer about the upcoming season.

Berghammer will also welcome back much of his experienced staff including David Olson, Jace Martens, and Spike Gideo, while adding retired St. Croix Central Hall of Fame Coach, Tony DiSalvo, and former All-Conference player John Peterson to this year's assistants.

Berghammer concluded, "I believe our conference will be extremely competitive this season with defending HON Champion Northwestern the team to beat. Our kids have been working hard and if we can stay healthy, I think we have a chance of being a pretty fun team to watch on Friday nights."

Cumberland will also have some 10 former players playing college football this fall as Berghammer concluded, "That is something else we are very proud to say."

Cumberland will host a scrimmage on Friday, August 12 at 10:00 am before opening the season on Friday, August 19, with a 7:00 non-conference contest in Osseo against Osseo-Fairchild.

Sports Look Back, August 8, 2012

The Cumberland Football team started practice on Tuesday for the 2012 High School Football season. JR Buckley returns as Head Coach, assisted by Barry Zappa, Dave Olson and Spike Gideo.

The team comes off a 7-3 season, where they were defeated by Cameron in the first round of the playoffs. Cumberland tied for second in the HON, finishing second in both offensive and defensive categories. They must replace, however, a fine group of senior athletes.

Among the toughest to replace will be Brady Rose, who finished as the top overall rusher in Cumberland school history. He scored 41 touchdowns and was named on the All-State team.

Adam Bielmeier, who was on three All-Conference teams in his career, will join several other graduated teammates, who will also need to be replaced on this year's squad.

Returning, however, are three players who received 2011 HON mention. Quarterback Kyle Narges, kicker Taylor Johnson, and linebacker Jaylen Lansin will be counted on heavily by Buckley.

Narges passed for 1,474 yards and 12 touchdowns as a junior. He was also the Beavers' second leading rusher and a starting defensive back. His quickness and athleticism should prove trouble for Cumberland opponents.

Lansin is a bruising full-back and tough linebacker, while Johnson will be a valuable asset at kicker, as well as one of the top receivers. They are three key pieces on a team that should battle for one of the top three places in the HON. The team has good size, with Tanner Grant, Conor Erb, and Jesse Hokanson among the linemen battling for time. Colin Elfers and Damen Feiertag are others with good overall size.

Several players will compete to take over ball carrying duties led by senior Cody Fillion, junior Zach Nyhus and talented sophomore Travis Miller.

An Outdoorsman's Journal

by Mark Walters

Shultz Lake/Forty Years Later

Hello friends,

I am sure that many of you are aware that I have taken the last four weeks off due to the unexpected passing of my girlfriend, Michelle Chiaro. The experience that you are about to read about was my first after her passing and in some ways, it was very difficult for me and in others it was very helpful to be with family and friends, deep in the Canadian bush.

Saturday, July 2nd

High 72, low 51

So today I turned 61, you can only get here by float plane, and forty years ago, 1982, we stayed here for the first time. My friends Chris and Tammy Leblanc along with others, own and manage Chimo Lodge and Outposts. They purchased it five years ago from Pete and Elizabeth Hagedorn. The Leblanc's, www.josie@chimolodge.com, have endured a major forest fire, two years of Covid 19, another forest fire and the passing of their partner and lead bushmen Daniel Wesolowski in this period of time. In closing on this subject, I was camp manager for this operation in the late 80's and a bushman for much of the 90's and this is where I started writing this column.

Today I would be in at the tiller of our boat and my brother Mike (he was here in 82) and lifelong buddy Jeff Moll would make up our team. Dick Schuster and his 30-year-old son Trent would be in another, and my brother Tom and his 12-year-old grandson Landon who came up together from Denham Springs, Louisiana would be in another.

The border crossing was not a problem because we had our Covid homework done and just a reminder, you cannot bring night crawlers into Canada anymore. The fishing, what can I say, due to two years with no one on these waters due to Covid the walleye were bigger and easier to catch but we did not slam as many hogs as I thought we would. The new lure for this group which would end up being a trip changer would be the Rapala, Rippin' Rap in blue chrome. I am aware that this is not a new lure but it was a change for our group and was absolutely a blast.

Generally, we troll with crawler harnesses which are very effective but tossing the Rippin Rap would prove to be a lot of fun and found us fish that I think we would have simply trolled over. Big walleye for the day, for the group was 24.5, and gator was 32! As usual, supper which was a fish fry, was served after midnight.

Last year the shoreline on about 80 percent of this lake burnt, the cabin was saved because the MNR forest fire fighters put sprinklers covering the area and the moisture saved the cabin. Back in 95 we were here when about 50-percent of the shoreline burnt and some of our gang was flown out by helicopter, the rest including myself stayed due to intense smoke, we helped rig up sprinklers and water pumps and it looked like we were all going to get cooked, just in time a thunderstorm came and put out the fire, we had a major "we put it out shing ding" with the fire fighters that night.

Wednesday, July 6th

High 72, low 52

The weather simply could not have been more comfortable for this trip with highs in the mid-70s and lows in the low 50s and only one day of rain; which that days was tough but manageable.

Today was the rain day and I would be with Trent. The rain was so powerful that we had to get out of the boat and just stand in a burnt out forest for a good hour while it came down. Mikey caught what would be the big walleye for the week with the blue chrome 'Rippin Rap' and tonight we played UNO and some people stayed up until the sun greeted the eastern horizon.

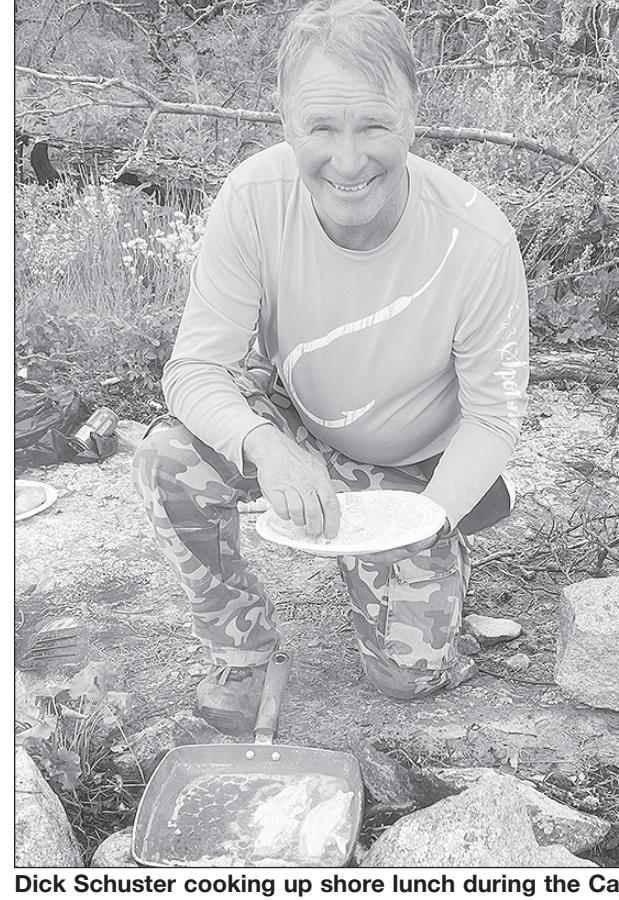

The following day Mike was my partner on this always incredible 7-day adventure and a good fish hit the Rippin Rap that I was tossing and it turned out to be a 39.5 inch gator which would be the big fish for the week in that category.

I started out this column writing about Michelle and I will end it that way. I went home to an empty house and a broken heart for the first time since the mid-90s. I deal with it one day at a time by staying busy, positive and with a lot of help from friends, neighbors and family.

Live for the day!

Jay Buckley Baseball Tour Guides Marty Paulsen and Mark Fuller in the stands at Boston's Fenway Park with the famed "Green Monster" in the background.

Longtime Chicago Cub great Billy Williams points to Cub fan Mark Fuller at the parade the day before Baseball Hall Of Fame inductions in Cooperstown New York.

A Summer Baseball Tour Heads to Cooperstown

Last week sent me on the first of my summer baseball tours, as I headed East to meet 46 people on a six-day Jay Buckley trip. I was joined by my good friend and co-host Marty Paulsen as we flew to Newark to start the journey.

I have been blessed to have hosted trips since 1985. Coming from all over the country, this bus includes people from Florida, Texas, Oklahoma, and New York as well as a gentleman from England. The largest contingent on our bus, however, will come from Minnesota, as they head East to watch long-time Minnesota Twins, Tony Oliva and Jim Kaat, be inducted into the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

We meet our group for some quick instructions and introductions on Friday night, July 22 and leave for Cooperstown the next morning. We arrive around 12:30 pm and spend our first day in the "Mecca of baseball" looking through the Hall, exploring shops, eating at the restaurants and watching a parade of Hall of Famers go down Main Street, one of the hi-lights of the day. Riding in the back of trucks, one can get a close-up look at some of baseball's all-time greats and if lucky, have a quick conversation as they pass by.

After the parade, we head to Albany, New York to spend the night, returning to Cooperstown the next morning for the Induction at the Clark Sports Center. A crowd of 35,000 join us for the day's events, including a large Dominican delegation there to see David "Big Papi" Ortiz join the Hall. Matt Thornton, the current owner of the oldest baseball tour group in the country, has purchased chairs which we use to watch the proceedings.

Cooperstown is filled with baseball fans the entire weekend. Walking down the street, you might run into Johnny Bench, Rod Carew, or Terry Ryan, while players from Reggie Jackson to Dave Winfield can be found signing autographs throughout the city. Following our second day in Cooperstown, we head to Massachusetts, where Monday morning we'll start the day with a tour of Fenway Park before our Red Sox game that night.

The Jay Buckley Baseball Tours are more than just baseball. I have been to the Football Hall of Fame, Gettysburg, toured the Cowboys Stadium, spent an afternoon at a San Francisco Pier, seen Broadway Plays, taken a boat ride around the Statue of Liberty, and spent several days in New Orleans on past trips. My next venture in September includes a stop at Niagara Falls. Great people attend the trips each year, including couples, father and sons, good friends, grandfathers and grandchildren, and single women and men. We've even had a few people meet and later marry following a trip.

Monday's tour of baseball's oldest park is outstanding as is the trip downtown which follows where a crab meat sandwich and Clam Chowder offer a fantastic New England meal. Later I walk around some of our country's earliest historical sites before our game at Fenway that night.

Tuesday, we head to a Yankee vs. Met game at Citi Field in Queens. The rivalry is intense between two first place teams and a constant hum of the crowd reminds me of the 1987 and 1991 World Series Games in the Twin Cities. The home team wins as we join a happy home crowd exiting the stadium back to our bus.

Wednesday our game is in Philadelphia. It is followed by a trip to the Constitution Center near the Liberty Bell, where our group visits Independence Hall, the Bell, and something to eat before departing. We've moved from Clam Chowder to Philly Cheese Steak Sandwiches, both equally good.

The final day of Trip #10 takes us to Manhattan. After two hours on our own at Rockefeller Center, we have a great four-hour guided tour of New York, which includes stops the New World Trade Center. We end up at Yankee Stadium for an exciting contest, which ends on an Aaron Judge walk-off home run. There is always something special about being at the franchise which Babe Ruth helped make famous.

As always, attendees remark at how fast the six-day trip went and exchange phone numbers and emails with their new friends once back to our final night at the motel. It is not uncommon to find someone on your bus who is on their 14th or 15th Buckley Trip, a testimonial at just how good they are. We all head home the next day with many memories of a great week spent together.

Matt Thornton offers over 20 baseball trips each year to each part of the country including Spring Training. If you have interest, please look at the trips on jaybuckley.com. You won't be disappointed. You'll find me on Trip #20.

Skinner Funeral Home welcomes Nikki Fox as Newest Funeral Director

Nikki Fox

Born and raised in Cumberland, Nikki is excited to be back and serve her hometown community and surrounding areas. Knowing from a young age that funeral care was the path for her, Nikki graduated from Cumberland High School in 2016, and then went on to complete her studies at the University of Minnesota, ultimately receiving her Bachelor's Degree in Mortuary Science in the Spring of 2020.

She gained four years of experience at Gearty-Delmore Funeral Chapels during her time in the cities, both as a student/intern and eventually, a licensed director. Although she loves most aspects of the job, her favorite part is meeting with families.

In her free time, Nikki enjoys spending time with her family, going out on the lake, and bow hunting.

Northwoods Notebook: We're going to miss Bistro 63 By Larry Werner

In this corner of your weekly newspaper, I've sung the praises of local eating establishments old and new. Some of the old favorites include the Five O'Clock Club, Nezzy's and the 100-year-old Corner Bar.

There's Bona Casa which, thankfully, has new owners who will keep the red sauce flowing after a prolonged period of being on the market and, not old but not really new, Louie's on the Lake, which took the place of Lakeside most recently and Sammy's pizza before that.

We've rejoiced that Peter & Annie's Coffee Shop & Café found a new home at the four corners after losing its lease and that Roots Coffee Co. gave us a second coffee shop in town when Janee and Sam Heer bought the Idlewild Outfitters building and opened a charming place for java, scones and conversation.

But a couple weeks ago, we got the bad news that our finest-dining establishment was closing its doors. Chef Jeno Herman and his mother, Sharon, gave us a dining choice that rivaled gourmet restaurants in big cities, and they operated it in the tiny town of Barronett.

Northwest Wisconsin is poorer for the loss of THE place to take our spouses for anniversary dinners, or to take guests who visit from bigger places who are amazed you can get such special meals in a town of 400, just a few miles north of a town of 2,000. It wasn't what you expected in the north woods.

Ann's favorite was the grilled pork chop on a roasted pear and caramelized onions sprinkled with bleu cheese. She's tried to duplicate that dish at home, but she can't match Jeno's. I always had a hard time resisting the salmon covered with tomatoes and capers, and the parmesan-encrusted walleye took the prize for the area's best fish fry, whether it was Friday or not.

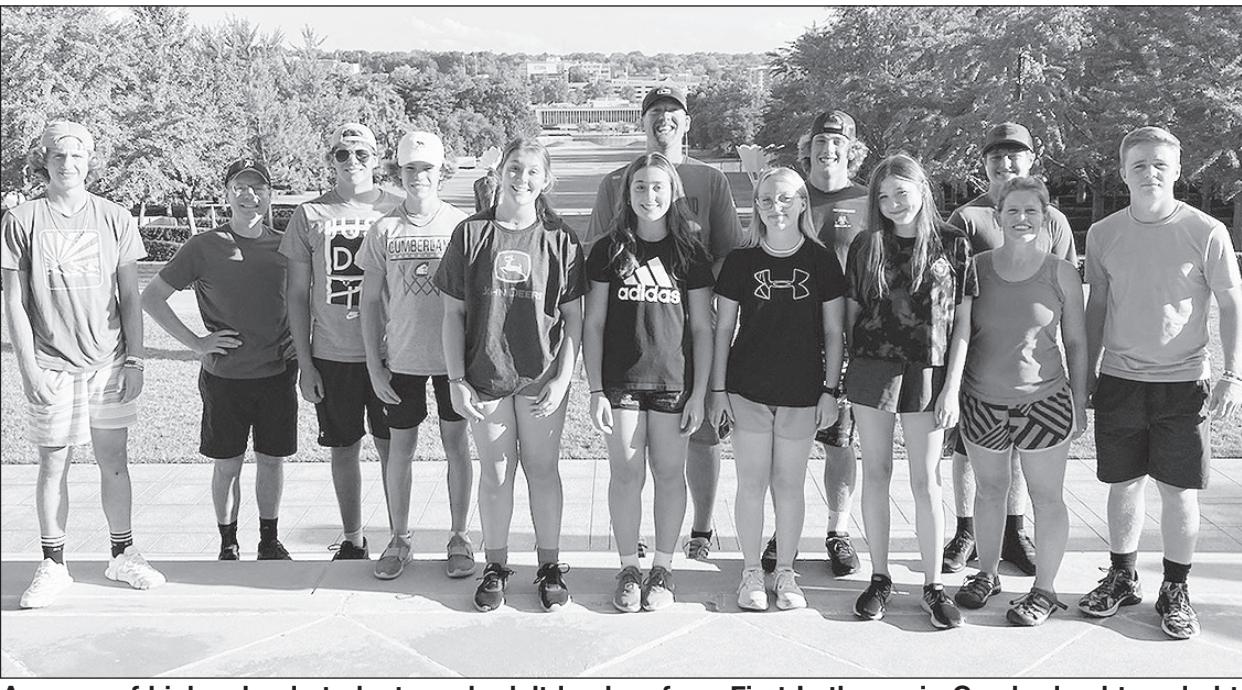

Who else around here served seafood jambalaya or pan-seared duck breast?

Building relationships one cup at a time!

The Cumberland School District today announced its policy for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch Program and School Breakfast Program or milk for split-session students served under the Special Milk Program. Each school office and the central office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility. Children from families whose annual income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free and reduced price meals or free milk if a split-session student does not have access to the school lunch or breakfast service.

FAMILY SIZE INCOME SCALE For Determining Eligibility for Free and Reduced Price Meals or Milk

Application forms are being sent to all homes with a notice to parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced price meals or free milk, households must fill out the application and return it to the school (unless notified at the start of the school year that children are eligible through direct certification). Additional copies are available at the office in each school. The information provided on the application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and may be verified at any time during the school year by agency or other program officials. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

To obtain free or reduced price meals or free milk for children in a household where one or more household members receive FoodShare, Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR), or Wisconsin Works (W-2) cash benefits, list the FoodShare, FDPIR or W-2 case number, program name, list the names of all school children, sign the application, and return it to the school office.

For the school officials to determine eligibility for free or reduced price meals or free milk of households not receiving FoodShare, FDPIR or W-2 cash benefits, the household must provide the following information requested on the application: names of all household members, total number of household members, and the adult signing the application form must also list the last four digits of his or her Social Security Number or mark the box to the right of "Check if no SSN". Also, the income received by each household member must be provided by amount and source (wages, welfare, child support, etc.).

Under the provisions of the free and reduced price meal and free milk policy Melissa Weaver, Administrative Assistant will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent or guardian is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he/she may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If the parent/guardian wishes to make a formal appeal, he/she may make a request either orally or in writing to: Dr. Barry Rose, Superintendent, 1010 8th Avenue, Cumberland, WI 54829, 715-822-5124.

If a hearing is needed to appeal the decision, the policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a household member becomes unemployed or if the household size changes, the family should contact the school. Such changes may make the household eligible for reduced price meals or free meals or free milk if the household income falls at or below the levels shown above, and they may reapply at that time.

Children formally placed in foster care are also eligible for free meal benefits. Foster children may be certified as eligible without a household application. Households with foster children and non-foster children may choose to include the foster child as a household member, as well as any personal income available to the foster child, on the same application that includes their non-foster children.

The information provided by the household on the application is confidential. Public Law 103-448 limits the release of student free and reduced price school meal eligibility status to persons directly connected with the administration and enforcement of federal or state educational programs. Consent of the parent/guardian is needed for other purposes such as waiver of text book fees.

Well August is here. I can't believe how fast summer is going. It seems to go faster every year. In just a few short weeks Rutabaga will be here. The first clue for the baga medallion is in the paper this week. It's a great excuse to get out and enjoy some summer weather and who knows you could win $200.00. Don't forget to buy a baga button. Also, while you are picking up your baga button, grab some new merchandise, now available at the Chamber of Commerce.

I was up at the first football practice this morning. The Beavers return a lot of talent and should be fun to watch this fall. Head Coach Corey Bergammer has done a great job with the football team. They have put together several years of good play. I see no reason that won't continue. Girls Golf kicks off next week with the rest of fall sports soon to follow.

The NFL is back in action now as well with all teams in the middle of camp. The first pre-season games are just two weeks away. As has been the case for quite some time, the Packers look to be the team to beat in the NFC North, with one of the best quarterbacks ever to play the game. The Pack is always good. It remains to be seen if any of the other teams in the division can close the gap.

As I write this, MLB is in the last stages of the trade deadline. My favorite club, the Twins, have done nothing yet while the Brewers made a surprise big move trading away arguably the best closer in the game Josh Hader to the Padres. The Padres then went and got the biggest name on the market, in Juan Soto. Man they are all in. The crew got a solid arm back in Taylor Rodgers and some to prospects. Devin Williams will now take the closer role I would think. He has filthy stuff but I can't help but think the loss of Hader will hurt. David Stearns has done a great job for the Brewers, putting together a competitive team every year. It will be fun to watch it play out as the season moves closer to the post season. Have a great week!

'Using highway rights-of-way to transmit electricity holds promise'

MADISON, Wis. — Almost everyone wants and needs reliable electricity, especially in an era when electric vehicles are hitting the roads in greater numbers, the digital world is ever-expanding and the "decarbonization" of energy generation is evolving in many markets.

What very few people want, on the other hand, are high-voltage transmission lines running through their backyards.

Finding better ways to deliver large amounts of electricity to millions of homes, businesses, schools and elsewhere can be partially addressed, in Wisconsin and elsewhere, by using "rights of way" along certain highways and even rail corridors for transmission.

Making better use of laws and practices that allow utilizing such physical easements, in Wisconsin as well as other states, was addressed July 26 during a Tech Council Innovation Network luncheon in Madison. Speakers said buried lines bordering major transit corridors are just part of the short-term answer but agreed the need and the ability to efficiently move electrons underground is poised to expand.

Plus, the opportunity is not confined to underground transmission of high-voltage direct current electricity. Telecommunications lines can be buried in the same rights-of-way, providing much-needed broadband connections along the route for rural areas and drivers of connected and autonomous vehicles.

"The concept is, as we build out the transmission structure, to coordinate the planning of that build to couple transmission together with broadband and EV charging — and doing it all within highways rights-of-way," said Randy Satterfield of NextGen Highways, a group working in Wisconsin and other states.

It is not just a theory. Wisconsin is one of very few states that has allowed use of rights-of-way for transmission, spanning nearly 20 years. About 40% of all such corridors in the United States can be found in Wisconsin. As Satterfield noted, Wisconsin already has a "playbook" other states can adopt — which was addressed during a 20-state conference held last month in Minnesota.

Most of the barriers are not technical. Cables can be buried about five-feet deep and require only a small band of a typical interstate right-of-way. There are no known effects on human health due to the mitigating effect of the Earth's magnetic field. Buried lines come with ample safety mechanisms to prevent accidental damage from excavation.

Transmission line repairs would take longer, however, and fewer states have state transportation agencies that are as accustomed to the idea as the Wisconsin Department of Transportation.

The biggest advantage, other than also making room for broadband cable, is to harden the U.S. electricity grid while making it capable of moving large amounts of wind and solar power.

Existing alternating current lines are ill-suited to move large amounts of renewable power from where it is produced to where it is consumed. Groups such as the Federation of American Scientists believe the answer lies in making way for more High-Voltage Direct

Current (HVDC) lines.

Higher construction cost is a likely barrier, but the time saved by not routing overhead lines through natural or populated areas could make up the difference. Why spend years fighting public opposition if there is a chance to use existing rights-of-way with fewer delays?

Whether they are produced by burning coal or natural gas, by splitting atoms or by harnessing the power of the sun and wind, electrons don't just flow magically through the air. Barring a change in current laws of physics, they must travel from Point A to Point B.

That can be a short distance from a rooftop solar array to the building it serves, or over hundreds of miles via HVDC transmission lines. In the long haul, it may be both. For those who want to speed the switch to renewable energy sources such as wind and solar, however, underground HVDC lines maybe necessary to connect those far-flung Points A and B.

Still is president of the Wisconsin Technology Council. He can be reached at tstill@wisconsintechnologycouncil.com.

August Law of the Month: Drive Sober every trip behind the wheel

Impaired driving is a deadly, preventable crime on Wisconsin roads ticularly deadly as people celebrate the final weeks of summer and the Labor Day holiday.

To raise awareness of the risks, Wisconsin State Patrol will join law enforcement agencies across the nation for the annual Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over campaign. The stepped-up enforcement runs from August 17 through Labor Day.

"Our officers will work together across the state with zero tolerance for alcohol or drug-impaired driving on Wisconsin roads," Superintendent Carnahan said. "We need each driver to take responsibility for their actions. Protect yourself, your passengers, and other travelers by getting a safe ride home."

Plan ahead for safe travel

If you plan to celebrate, identify a sober designated driver, or find a safe alternative way home. Never allow someone who is impaired to get behind the wheel.

Protect yourself and your passengers every time you travel. Buckle up, phone down. Watch your speed and eliminate distractions.

If you suspect a driver is impaired, call 911. Provide as much detail as possible on the driver, vehicle, and location.

Download the free Drive Sober mobile app from the WisDOT website. The app includes a "find a ride" feature to help locate mass transit and taxi services.

Some bars and restaurants have programs to provide patrons a safe ride home.

goes on to say that EMS was dispatched to the scene to provide care for Bearheart, who was initially unresponsive but breathing okay. EMT's were able to awaken Bearheart, but his demeanor was sluggish and his speech was slurred.

When Bearheart was asked if he had consumed any drugs, Bearheart stated, "meth" but denied any use of heroin.

On June 27, 2022, Thayer appeared at a hearing, and the Honorable Judge Melissa Mogen ordered a $2,000 cash bond for Thayer. On July 13, 2022, he appeared for an initial appearance

Thayer is scheduled to appear in August.

On June 27, 2022, Judge Mogen ordered that Bearheart must post an additional $10,000 cash in order to be released from custody. Online court records indicate that the bond for Bearheart covers numerous felony-level court cases already filed in Burnett County and his bonds total $48,750.

Bearheart is also scheduled to appear in August.

Barron Spotlights Theater Group Announces Auditions For Upcoming Shows

The Barron Spotlights theater group proudly announces that they will be holding auditions for two shows: "The Odd Couple" and "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?". Auditions will be held at the Barron Area Community Center on Thursday, August 4 from 6pm to 9pm and Saturday, August 6 from 3pm to 7pm. Adult men and women are needed for roles in both shows.

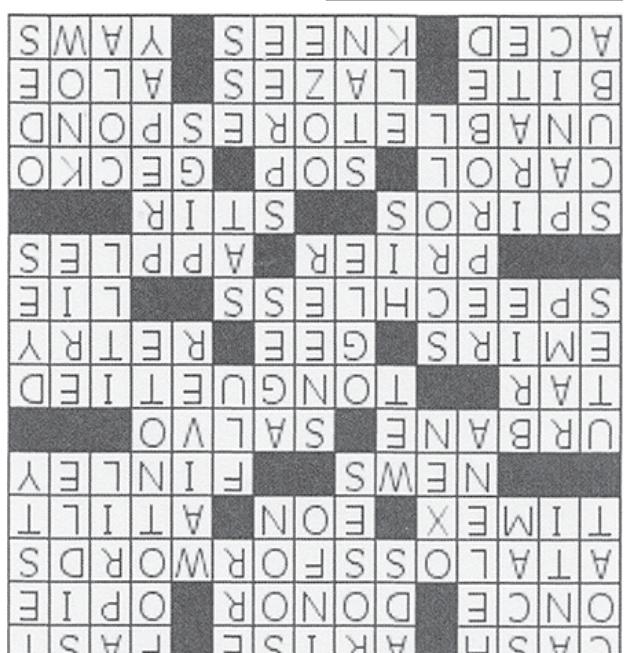

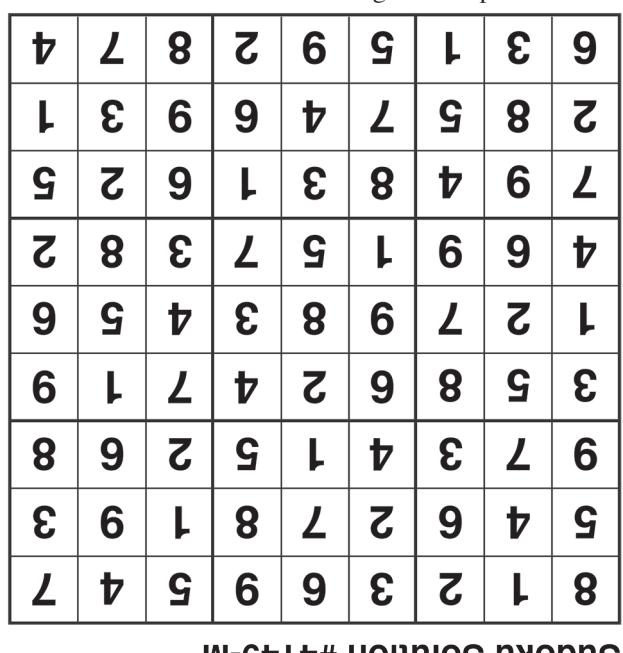

"The Odd Couple" features Felix Ungar, a neurotic, neat freak news writer who is thrown out by his wife, and moves in with his friend Oscar Madison, a slovenly sportswriter. Despite Oscar's problems - careless spending, excessive gambling, a poorly kept house filled with spoiled food - he seems to enjoy life. Felix, however, seems utterly incapable of enjoying anything and only finds purpose in pointing out his own and other people's mistakes and foibles. "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" focuses on two couples. George and Martha stumble home from a faculty party at the university where George teaches. Right away we get the sense that they're not the happiest couple in the world - in fact they seem to be rather bitter. Martha informs her husband that a young couple, Nick and Honey, are coming over for a few after party drinks. The doorbell chimes and the scene is set for alcohol, agony, and some serious emotional devastation.

Those who want to participate but cannot make either audition date work are encouraged to contact the Spotlights at 715-537-9212, email them at barronspotlights@gmail.com, or go the Contact Us page on their website, www.barronspotlights.org.

Barrenett News

By Judy Pieper

The congregation of Barrenett Lutheran Church would, once again, like to thank Pastor Karen Johnson for filling in for Pastor Todd this past Sunday. Pastor Todd still isn't feeling quite up to par, but Pastor Karen said that she is sure he will be with us again next Sunday. We all appreciate Pastor Karen's inspiring sermons and her willingness to step in for us, and we all hope that Pastor Todd will be feeling just fine again very soon.

Judy Norton brought a guest, Angie Jacobs, to church with her on Sunday morning. Angie is up from Santa Fe, NM, visiting with her aunt, Misti Cithosz, in Menomonie for the summer and decided that she would like to spend a little time with Judy. Angie will be returning to New Mexico the end of this month to start her first year as a high school student.

One really important event that is coming up, on August 14th, is Ruth Grover's 100th birthday party. It will be held at the Barrenett Community Center, and all Ruth's friends, relatives and neighbors are welcome. We are looking forward to celebrating that day with Ruth and hope you can stop by to wish her a happy 100th birthday.

The Washburn County Fair was great!! Especially the ice cream stand.

Well, the animal barns and 4-H and open exhibits were wonderful too, but it's so much fun to sit, watch people walk by, and eat a dish of ice cream. Duane and I were among the throng at the 4-H animal auction – we bought a pig from Lucas Arnes – the very last animal that they sold. (People at Oak View will be enjoying pork dinners for a while.)

After the auction we had dinner from the 4-H kitchen. Saw lots of people we knew, which is another one of our favorite things about the fair. We visited with Dan Denver and Kevin Johnson for quite a while. Kevin was frantically trying to keep the ice cream stand supplied and that seemed to be a never-ending job. Anyway, we had lots of fun and are looking forward to next year's event.

Richard Pieper is walking on air!! He and his Special Olympics softball team were chosen to go to Milwaukee this past weekend to compete in the State games. They took a bus down and were able to get hotel rooms instead of staying in the dorms, which was an extra treat. They won their first game, but, although they tried their very best, they lost the second and came home with a silver medal. (Still pretty great and exciting.) On the way home they stopped in Wisconsin Dells for supper. It was a wonderful trip for the whole team, and they are looking forward to coming home with the gold next year.

Miriah Lehmann and I drove to Tomah on Friday to watch Jeremy Olson rope calves in slack. Jeremy and Miriah knew lots of the cowboys and cowgirls there and introduced me to a bunch of them. I even met the new World's Champion breakaway roper, Jenna Hume. She is the niece of Jeremy's friend, Casey, who is also a calf roper. Pretty exciting stuff – I took lots of pictures and am going to start a new photo album of rodeo events – starring Jeremy, of course.

John Trolinger and two of his friends, Steve and Ron, were among the many motorcyclists participating in the ride to fund a new K-9 dog for Barron Police Department. They said that it was a great ride with perfect weather and that they thought that there was a lot of money raised to buy the dog and pay for its training.

Duane and I were so sorry to hear that the Herman family were planning to close Bistro 63 on August 15th. We have enjoyed having them as neighbors, talking over the fence a lot when they were able to sneak in a break, and, of course, enjoying the delicious food that Jeno and his crew prepared. We have invited Sharon, Jeno and Chrissy to visit us anytime, but we would really like to have them come to the treehouse and take fresh vegetables from our garden. We wish them luck on their next adventures.

Gabi Otto – I am so sorry that I missed your birthday. Contrary to popular belief, Ryley is not our favorite kid in your family. We love you both. Can you ever forgive me? Next year will be different, I promise.

That's about all I know from Barrenett this week. See you next time.

Church Directory

"Let's play a game, shall we? "

by Pastor Shane Anderson

Augustana Lutheran Church

Suppose you grew up on farm as the eldest child and knew that someday your dream would come true and you would inherit the family farm. Would that knowledge of your forthcoming inheritance effect your decisions in your formative years? Would that knowledge effect your decision to go to college or what you would major in? Would that effect the type of person you would court to be your spouse? The type of vehicle you would drive? The clothes you would wear?

If knowing what the future had in store for you, the average person would use that knowledge to prepare their future self for that eventuality. Or would they? it seems that so many people know that Judgement Day is coming, and those who believe in Christ will inherit eternal life, yet, these same people live today as if this life is all there was. Get as much as you can whilst you can. Those who know they will inherit the Kingdom are almost indistinguishable from those for whom the future is a mystery. So, if you know what the future holds, if you know that Christ died for you and that God raised Him from the dead to pave the way for you to inherit eternal life, let that knowledge inform your decisions today. Live out your faith in knowing that paradise awaits you!

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Shane

NOTICE OF PARTISAN PRIMARY AND SAMPLE BALLOT

AUGUST 9, 2022

OFFICE OF THE BARRON COUNTY CLERK
TO THE VOTERS OF BARRON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a partisan primary to be held in Barron County on August 9, 2022, at which the nominees for the offices named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office under the appropriate party, each in its proper column, in the sample ballot below.

Information to Voters

Upon entering the polling place and before being permitted to vote, a voter shall:

- state their name and address
- show an acceptable form of photo identification*
- sign the poll book

*If a voter does not have acceptable photo identification, the voter may obtain a free photo ID for voting from the Division of Motor Vehicles.

If the voter is unable to sign the poll book due to disability, a poll worker may write the word "exempt."

If a voter is not registered to vote, they may register to vote at the polling place serving their residence if the voter provides proof of residence.

Where ballots are distributed to voters, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot.

Upon being permitted to vote, the voter shall enter a voting booth or go to a machine and cast their ballot. The vote should not be cast in any manner other than specified here. Sample ballots or other materials to assist the voter in marking their ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

A voter who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the voter's minor child or minor ward.

An election official may inform the voter of the proper manner for casting a vote but the official may not advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

Assistance for Voting

A voter may select an individual to assist in casting their vote if the voter declares to the presiding official that they are unable to read, have difficulty reading, writing, or understanding English, or that due to disability are unable to cast their ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the voter's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the voter. If a voter is unable to state their name and address, an assistant may also do so for the voter.

At the partisan primary, the voter shall select the party of their choice. Voting for candidates of more than one party may invalidate the ballot. The voter must cast a vote for individual candidates.

Where Optical Scan Voting is Used

- If a party preference is designated, and votes are cast for ballot candidates of another party or write-in votes are cast in another party, only votes cast in the designated party will count.
- If a party preference is not designated, and votes are cast for candidates (or write-in votes are cast) in more than one party, no votes will be counted.

Within the party of their choice, the voter shall fill in the oval next to the name of the candidate of their choice for each office for which they intend to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the voter shall write in the name of the person of their choice in the space provided for a write-in vote and fill in the oval next to the write-in line.

When using an electronic ballot marking device ("Automark," Express Vote," "ClearAccess" or "ImageCast Evolution (ICE)" to mark an optical scan ballot, the voter shall touch the screen or use the tactile pad to select the party of their choice. The voter shall then touch the screen at the name of the candidate of their choice for each office for which they intend to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the voter shall type in the name of the person of their choice in the space provided for a write-in vote.

Where Touch Screen Voting is Used

The voter shall touch the screen or use the tactile pad to select the party of their choice. The voter shall then touch the screen at the name of the candidate of their choice for each office for which they intend to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the voter shall type in the name of the person of their choice in the space provided for a write-in vote.

Spoiled Ballots

If a voter spoils an optical scan ballot, they shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one voter. If the ballot has not been initialed by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the voter shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place.

The voter may spoil a touch screen ballot at the voting station before the ballot is cast.

After Voting the Ballot

After an official optical scan ballot is marked, it may be inserted in the security sleeve, so the marks do not show. The voter shall then insert the ballot in the voting device and discard the sleeve or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit. The voter shall leave the polling place promptly.

After an official touch screen ballot is marked, the voter shall leave the polling place promptly.

The following is a sample of the official ballot:

Class of 1962!*CLASS OF 1962*Home Again!

Oldies by Home Again on stage Aug. 9

If you attended the ETC production of "It's a Wonderful Life (Live Radio Version)" last December, you heard a band called Home Again playing oldies before the show and during intermission.

That band, which consists of Phil Warner, Stan Nosbush and Nancy Keeler, will be on the Library Lake stage Tuesday, Aug. 9, as part of the Island City Music series. The concert will be sponsored by Peter & Annie's Coffee Shop & Café, and the food will be served by the new restaurant at the Cumberland Golf Club – Northwoods Brew Pub.

Warner, the retired music teacher at Cumberland Elementary, plays guitar and is the lead vocalist. Nosbush plays bass, and Keeler plays bassoon. Their songs include old favorites from such artists as Peter, Paul & Mary and John Denver. The concerts are free. You should bring a lawn chair.

If it rains, Home Again will play at the Cumberland Arts Center.

The school district's kayaks are also available on Library Lake on concert nights, and the Cumberland Farmers Market has moved to Tuesday on Sorenson Street, where it runs between the library and Pendleton Pawn.
